1970 — A Year Of Confrontation

1970 — A year of confrontation opening a decade of uncertainty. An alert listener hears of "confrontations" many times daily: of confrontations between Black and White, between labor and management, between student and administrator. Direct confrontations unsettle people and create new patterns; involve the individual in new modes of thought, in new styles of living.

Man must face and solve some difficult problems in the seventies. If he avoids these, he may not survive to wonder at the mysteries that the eighties hold. Over-population, pollution of the earth's air and water, social and economic inequities: man must meet these problems head on and eliminate them. He must confront and conquer.

The men and women who will shape the turbulent world of the seventies are now preparing themselves for this struggle in schools throughout the nation. Students at Lutheran High daily prepare for the time when mankind asks each of them to contribute to the struggle.

The students at Lutheran High have confronted many new things this year and have grown academically and spiritually. 1970, has been a year of confrontation.

Students Think and

Puzzled, outraged, perplexed, surprised: these adjectives fit students at Lutheran High as they confront the world through their classes. This confrontation causes action and reaction, both mental and physical. Students at Lutheran High both think and do. Whether they evaluate the ideas of a teacher's lecture, or create a painting, or cook a dinner, they expand their world by trying out new ideas and new methods of operation. Through this meeting of minds and methods, teachers and students grow together to new understanding. After each interchange students have somehow changed for the better. Confronting, unsettling, rearranging, inverting, denying, challenging — learning: these are activities that take place at Lutheran High.

Do at West

Athletes, Coaches Face Confrontations Before

The world of sports provides many opportunities for confrontation. Whether the sport involves contact or whether it involves careful concentration, a form of confrontation is there. The several types of sports that West offers confront the participant from start to finish. Between the long practice hours and the many talks given by the coaches, the teams prepare to confront the opponent.

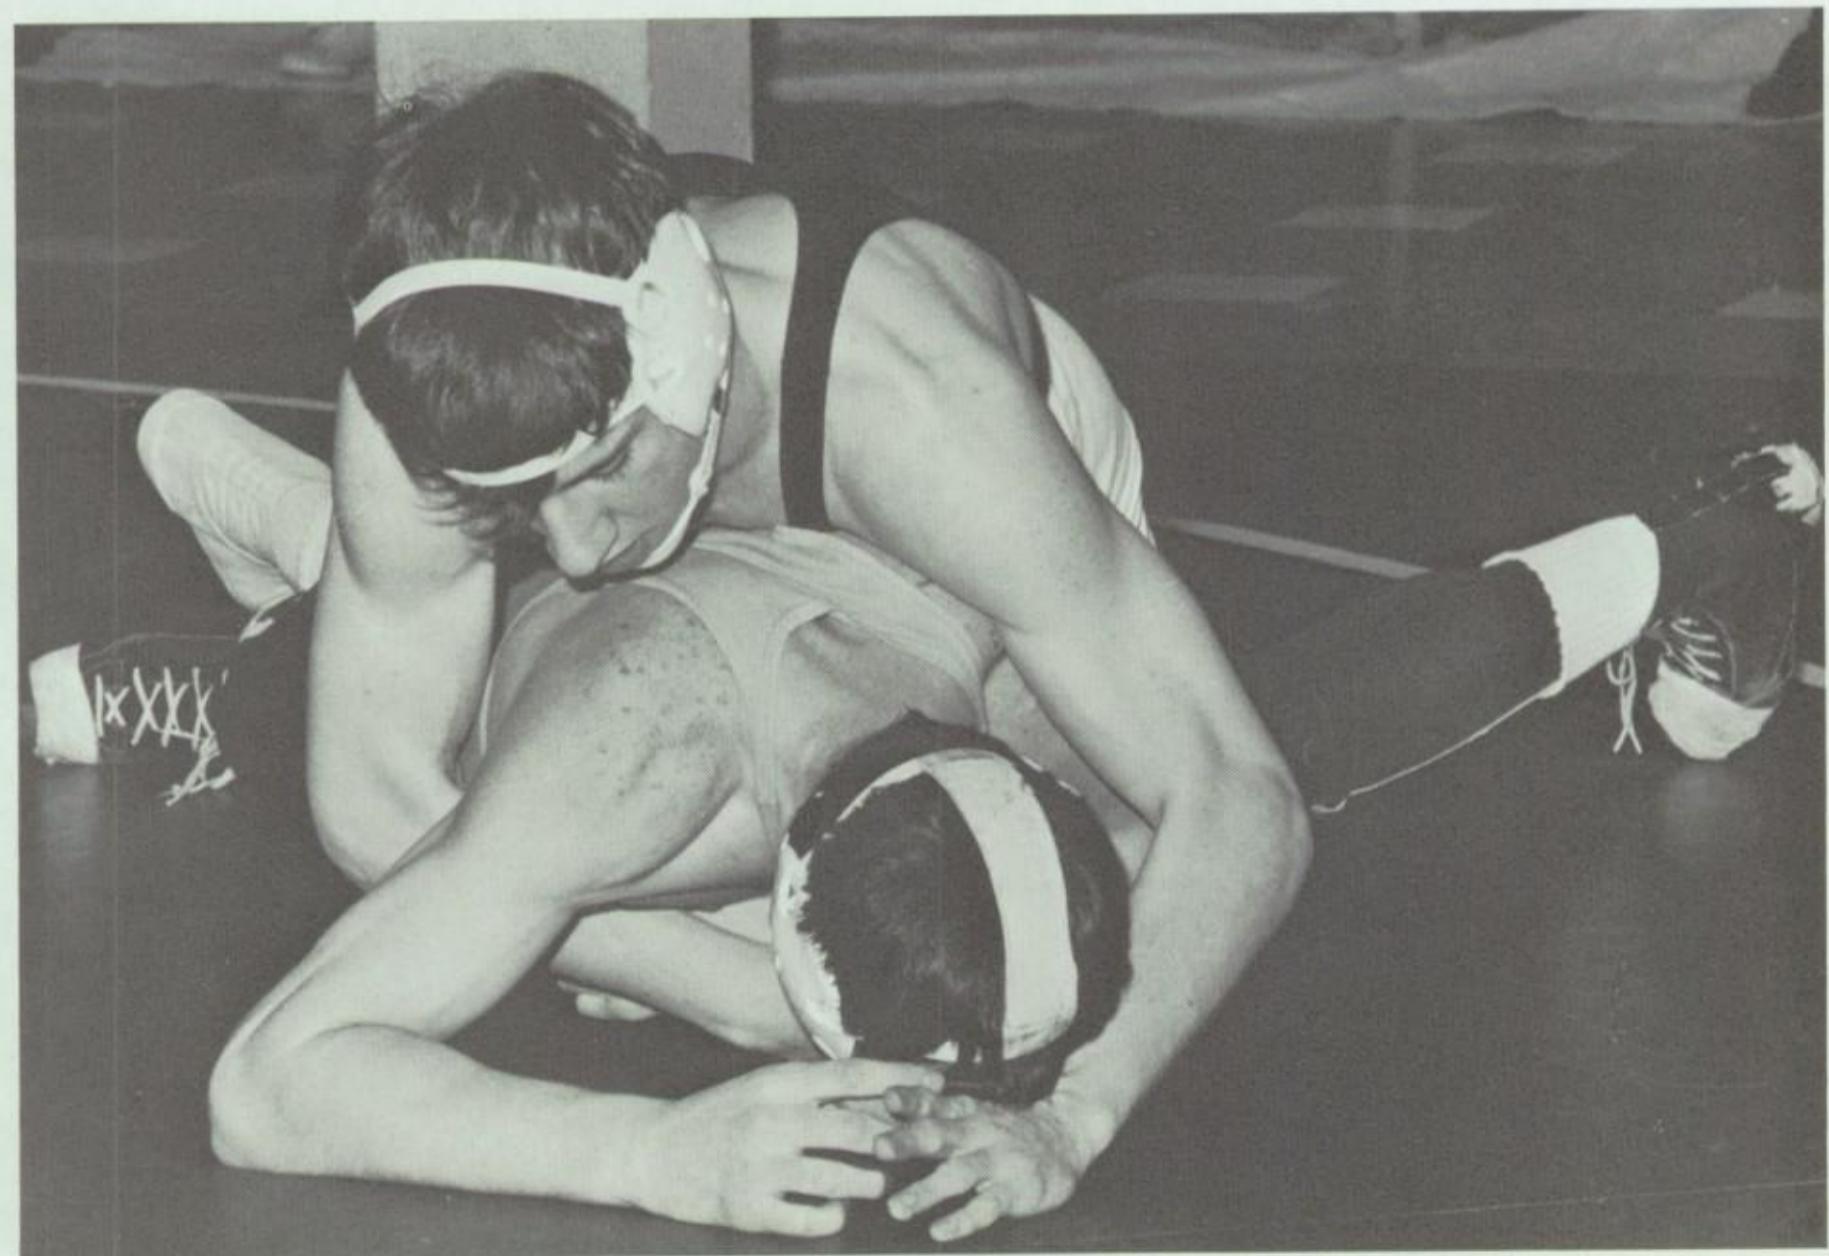

Confrontations are provided daily in the world of sports. These confrontations provide team members with basic ideas and feelings which are necessary for achieving success in this world. With this preparation behind all sports participants, the administration is able to assure a successful citizen of the future.

Goals Are Reached

Students Confront

Others in Activities

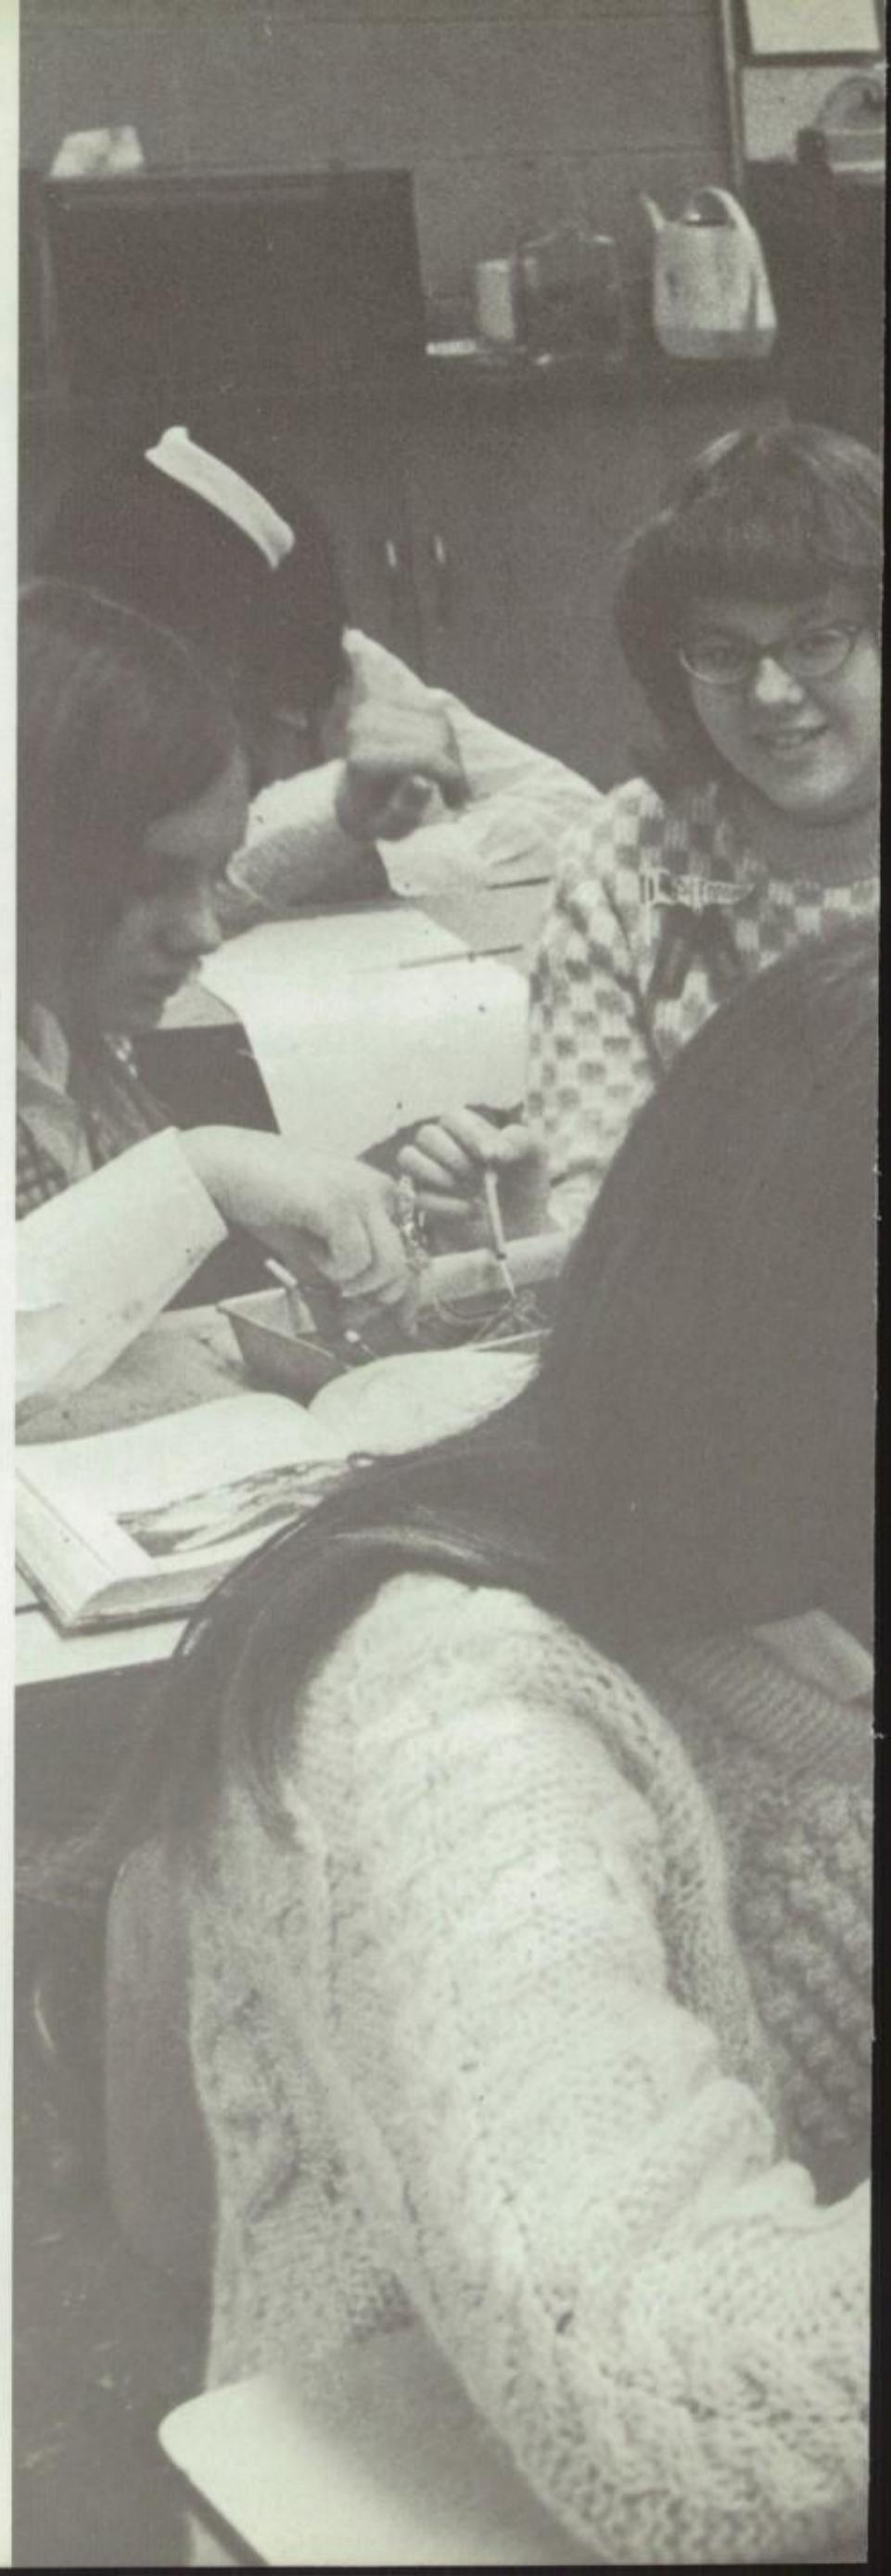

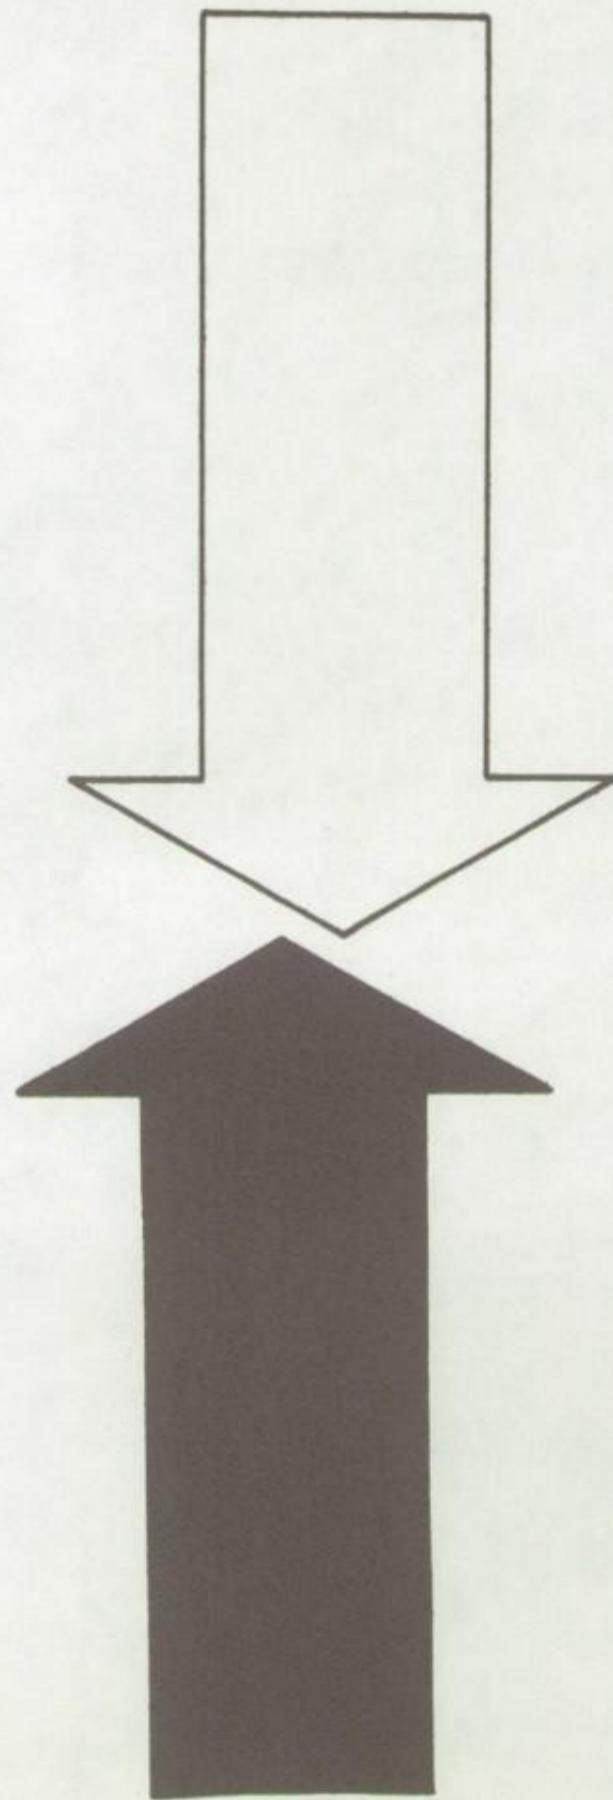

People at Lutheran High West do not stop learning when they leave the classroom. They continue to learn by doing things together outside of class. The classroom is only the place that education starts. Through their out-of-class activities, the students and teachers meet the problems of working together and share the happiness of group participation.

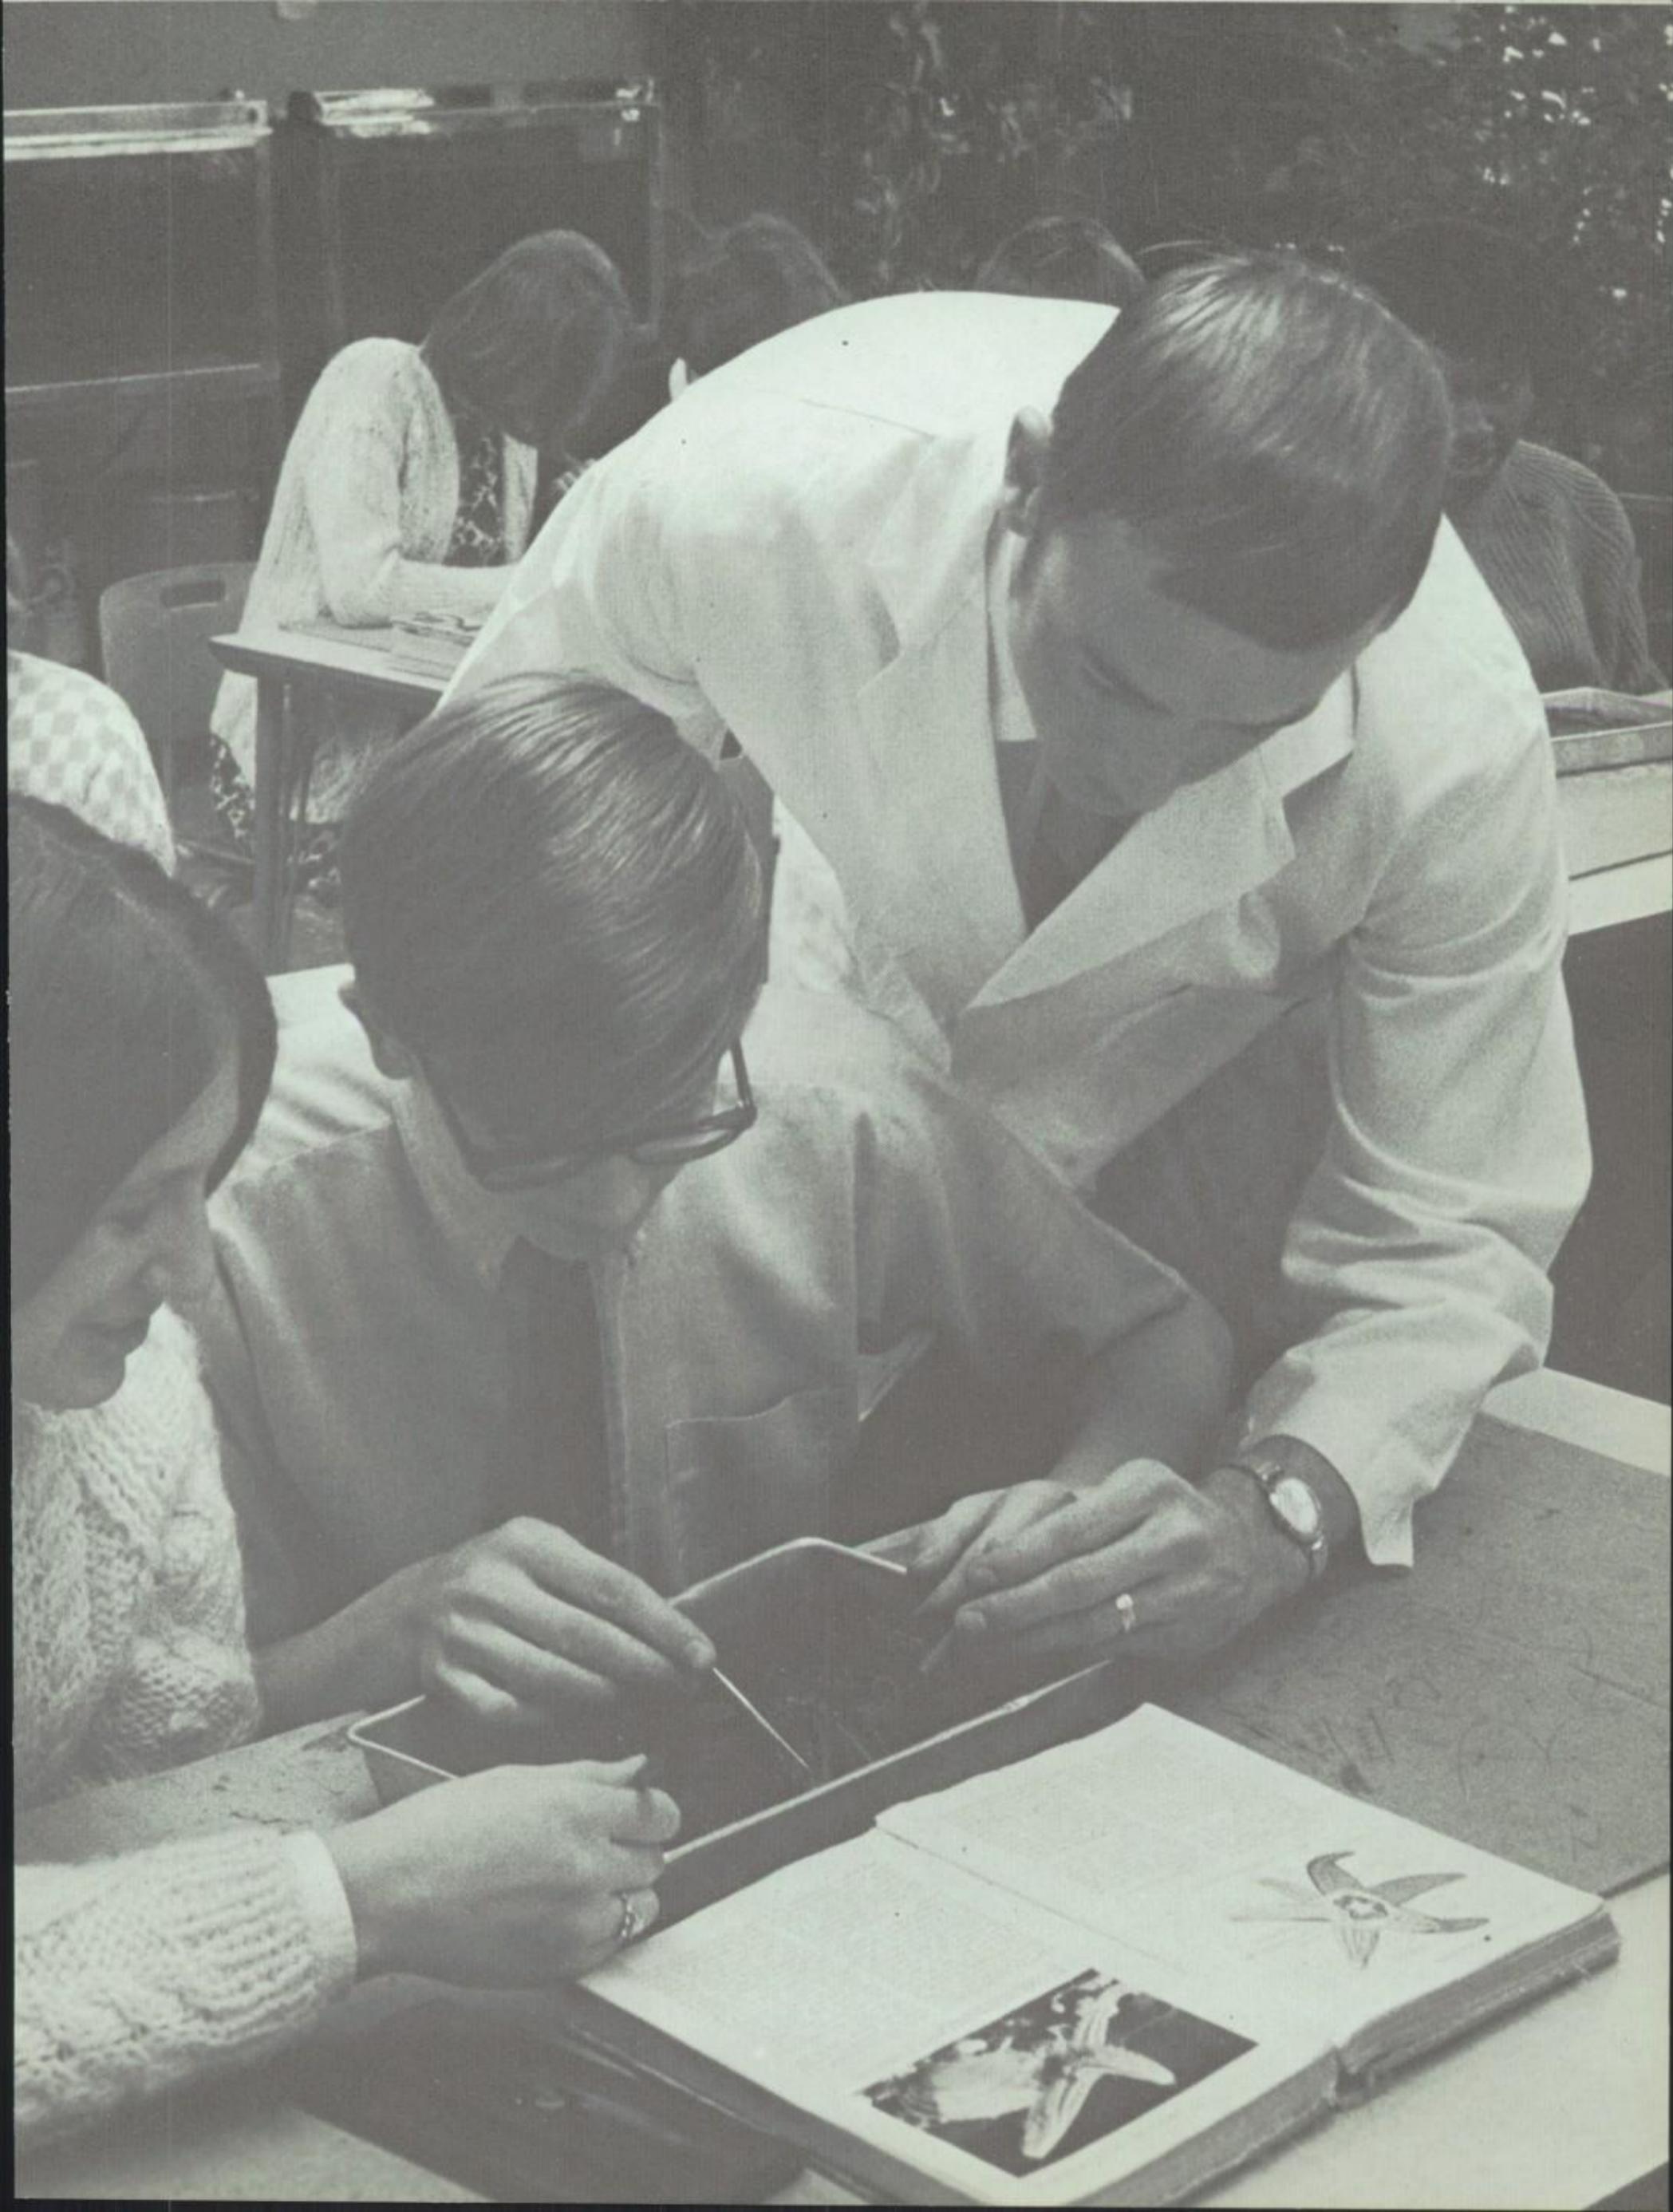

Students get a chance to practice the ideals stressed in the classroom by participating in a variety of activities ranging from girls' intramural football to formal dances. Whether huddling together at a cold football game, participating in a "dress-up day," or practicing for the big powder-puff football game, students and teachers work closely together. By participating in the school's activities, the students confront the world of others.

Confrontation: Minds Encounter New Worlds

Administration, Counselors

Dr. Stelmachowicz approves school policies.

Miss Finzel works busily in her office.

Dr. Stelmachowicz, who is in his third year of being superintendent for Lutheran High West and East, holds many responsibilities.

On account of his many duties, our principal, Mr. Wied, can be seen in a variety of places throughout the school day.

Rev. Williams, our assistant principal, has the duties of enforcing the rules, working with student council and being a substitute teacher.

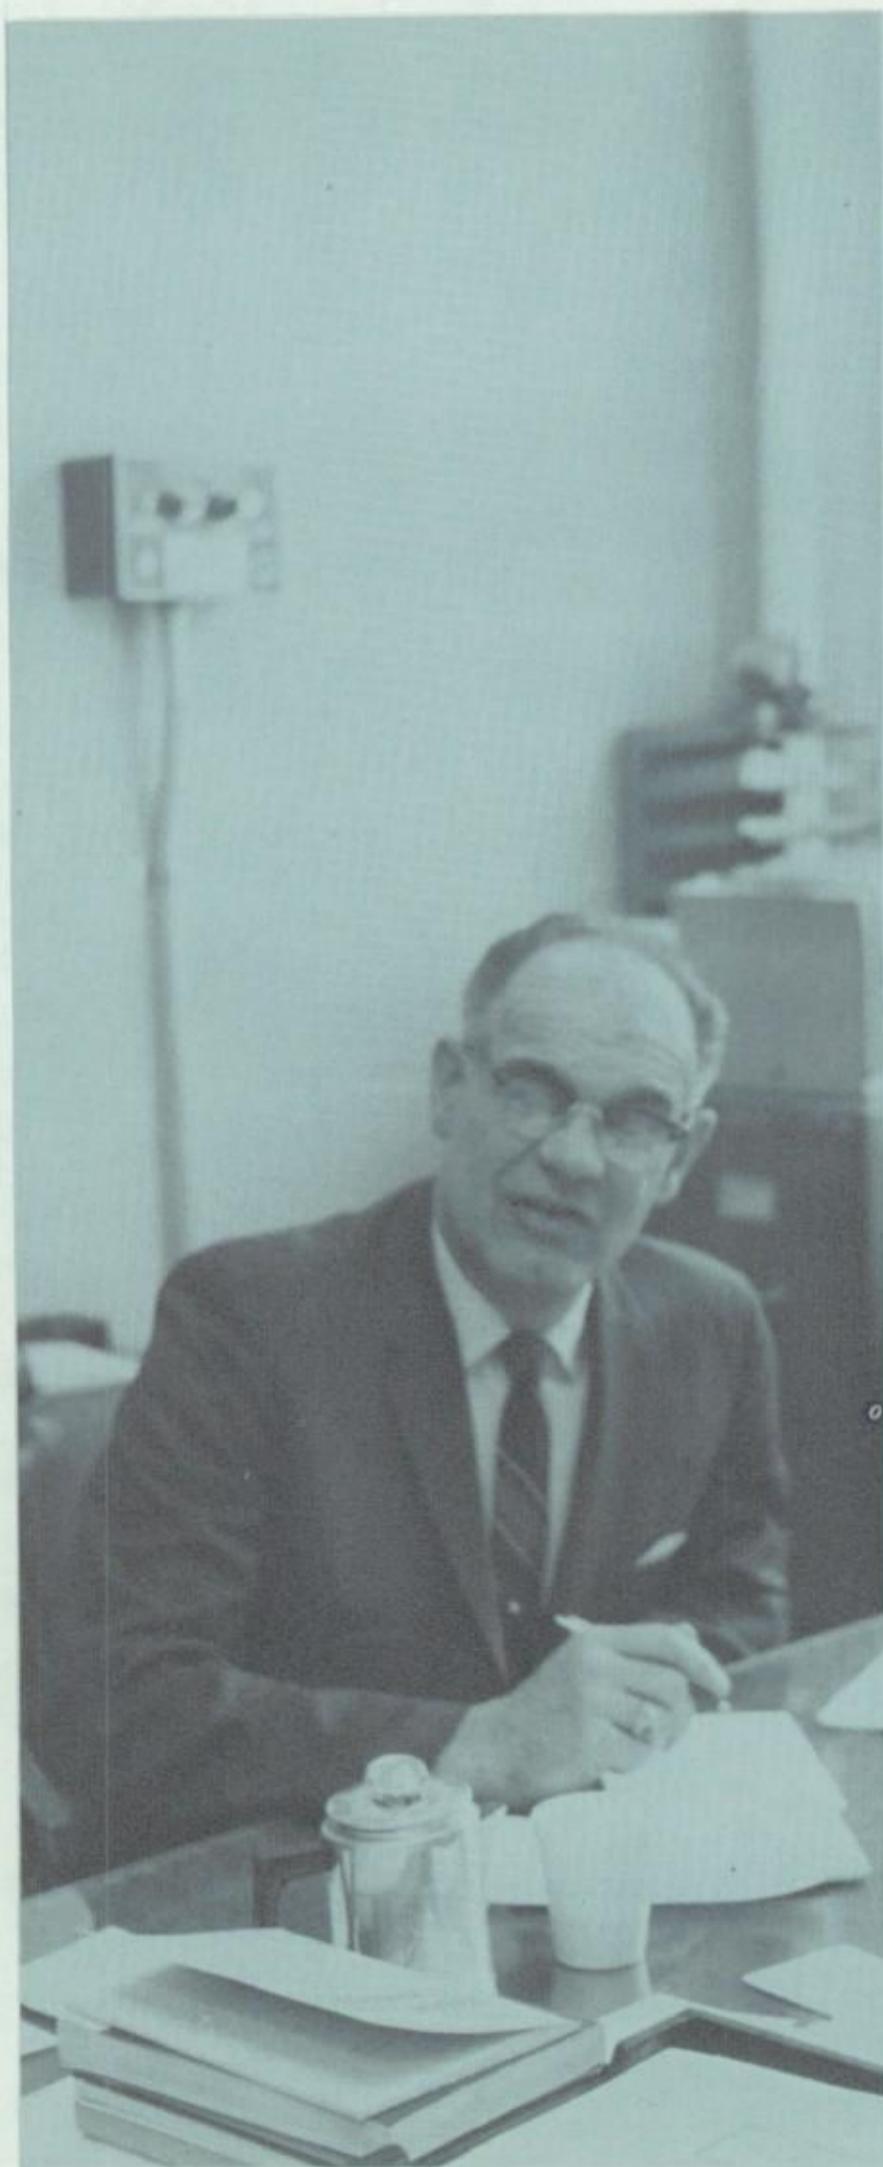

Miss Finzel, the Registrar, is a very busy teacher. Besides teaching speech classes and being a counselor, she arranges the schedules for all of the students at Lutheran West.

Mr. Stohlmann helps many seniors prepare and apply for college. He also helps many students who are looking for jobs.

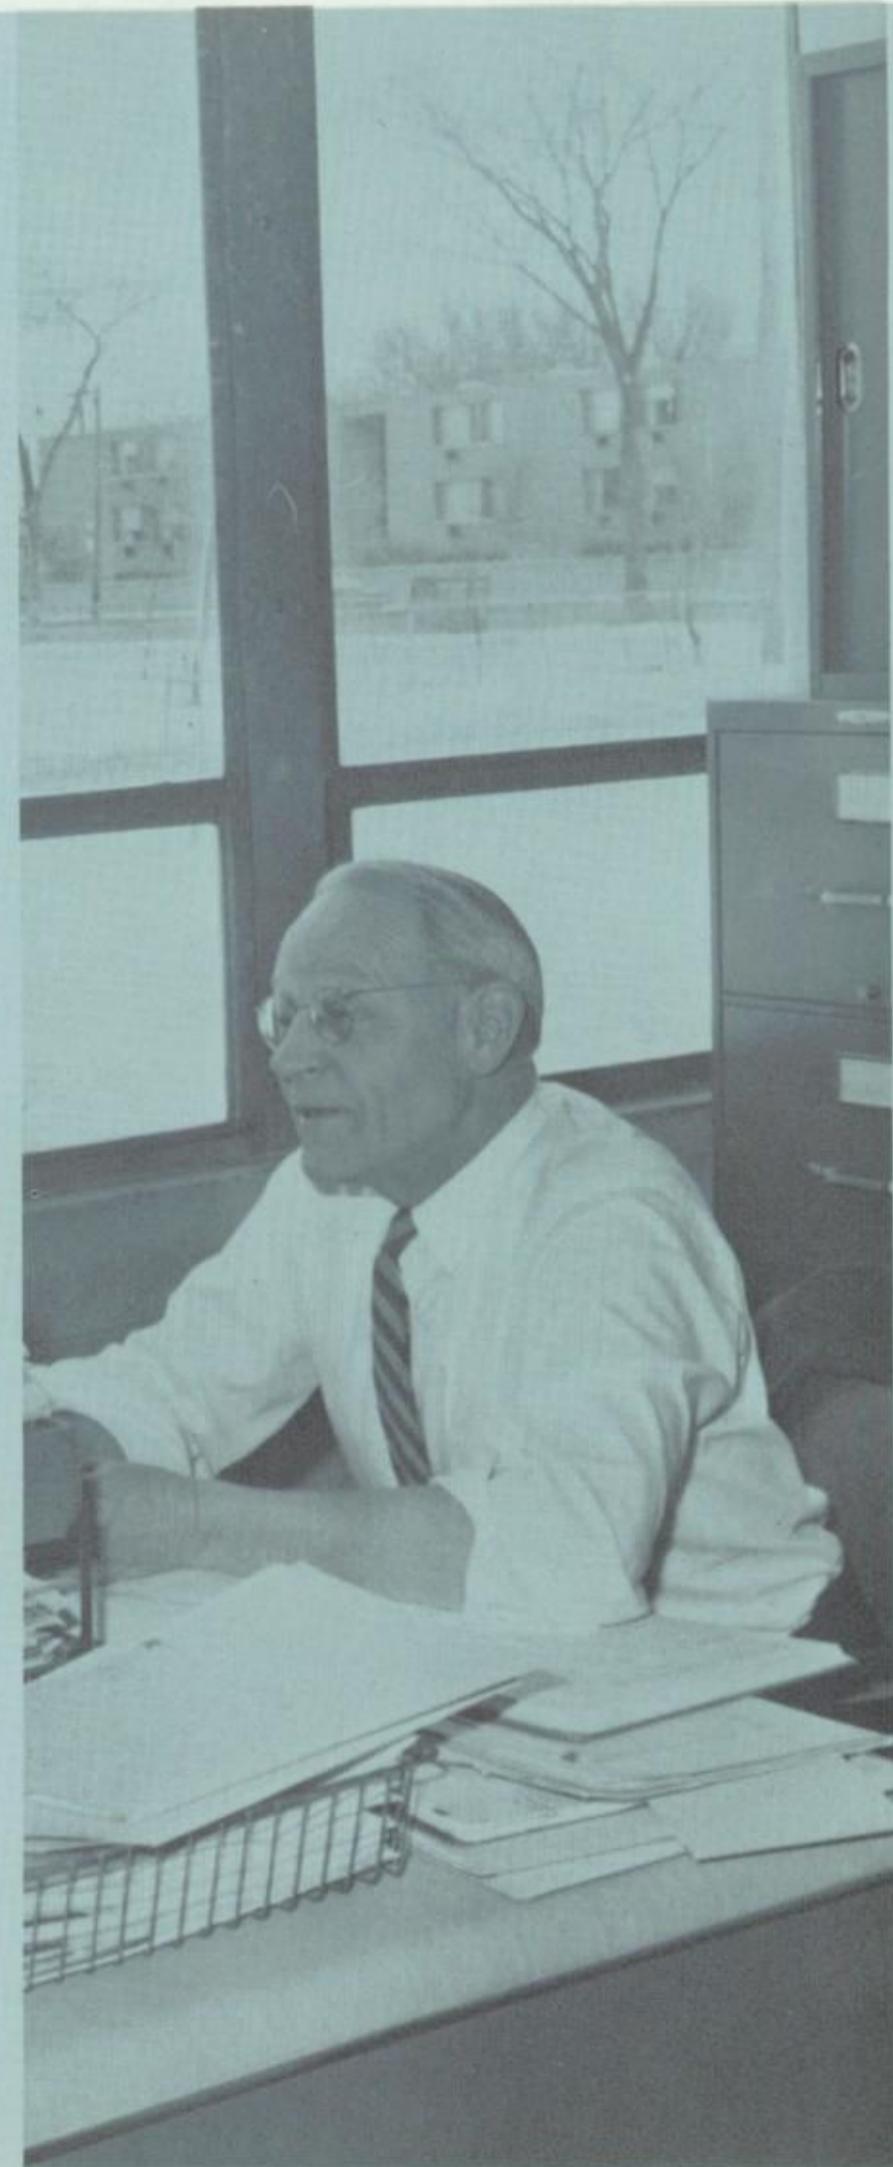

Rev. Williams makes out the attendance sheets.

Keep School Functioning

Our principal, Mr. Wied, keeps our school running.

As a counselor, Mr. Stohlmann helps many students.

Secretaries, Cooks, Janitors

Mrs. Borrusch is always busy at the typewriter or the telephone.

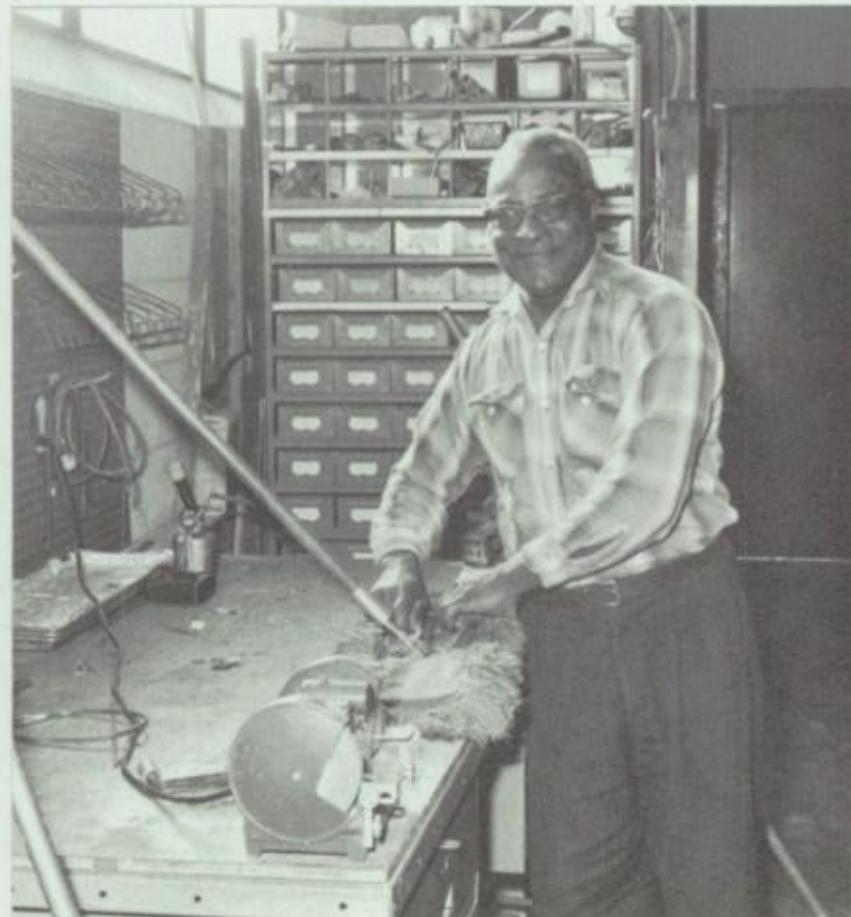

Mrs. Mandy, Mrs. Allen, and Mrs. Mannle prepare our lunches.

Aid School Greatly

Many people are needed to keep a school running. Mrs. Borrusch, our school secretary, is one of them. Our cooks: Mrs. Allen, Mrs. Mannle, and Mrs. Mandy, also give us pleasure with the lunches they cook. Our janitors, Mr. Allen and Mr. Haddon, also do more for us than we realize. Mr. Allen keeps the school clean during the day, while Mr. Haddon cleans and repairs the school at night. Mrs. Berkesch works in the office keeping our records straight. Without these people, our school would really be in trouble.

Mr. Allen keeps our school clean during the day.

Mr. Haddon repairs a broom.

Mrs. Berkesch helps to keep our school records in order.

Religion Classes

New Testament, a required religion class, teaches Freshmen about the origin of the Bible and the life of Christ.

Old Testament is taken by Sophomores so that they may learn about the significance of the Old Testament to their lives.

Juniors take Church History, from which they learn of the history of their Church.

Christian Doctrine, the class for Seniors, helps them understand and appreciate the Scriptures and the Means of Grace.

English Teaches Basic Skills,

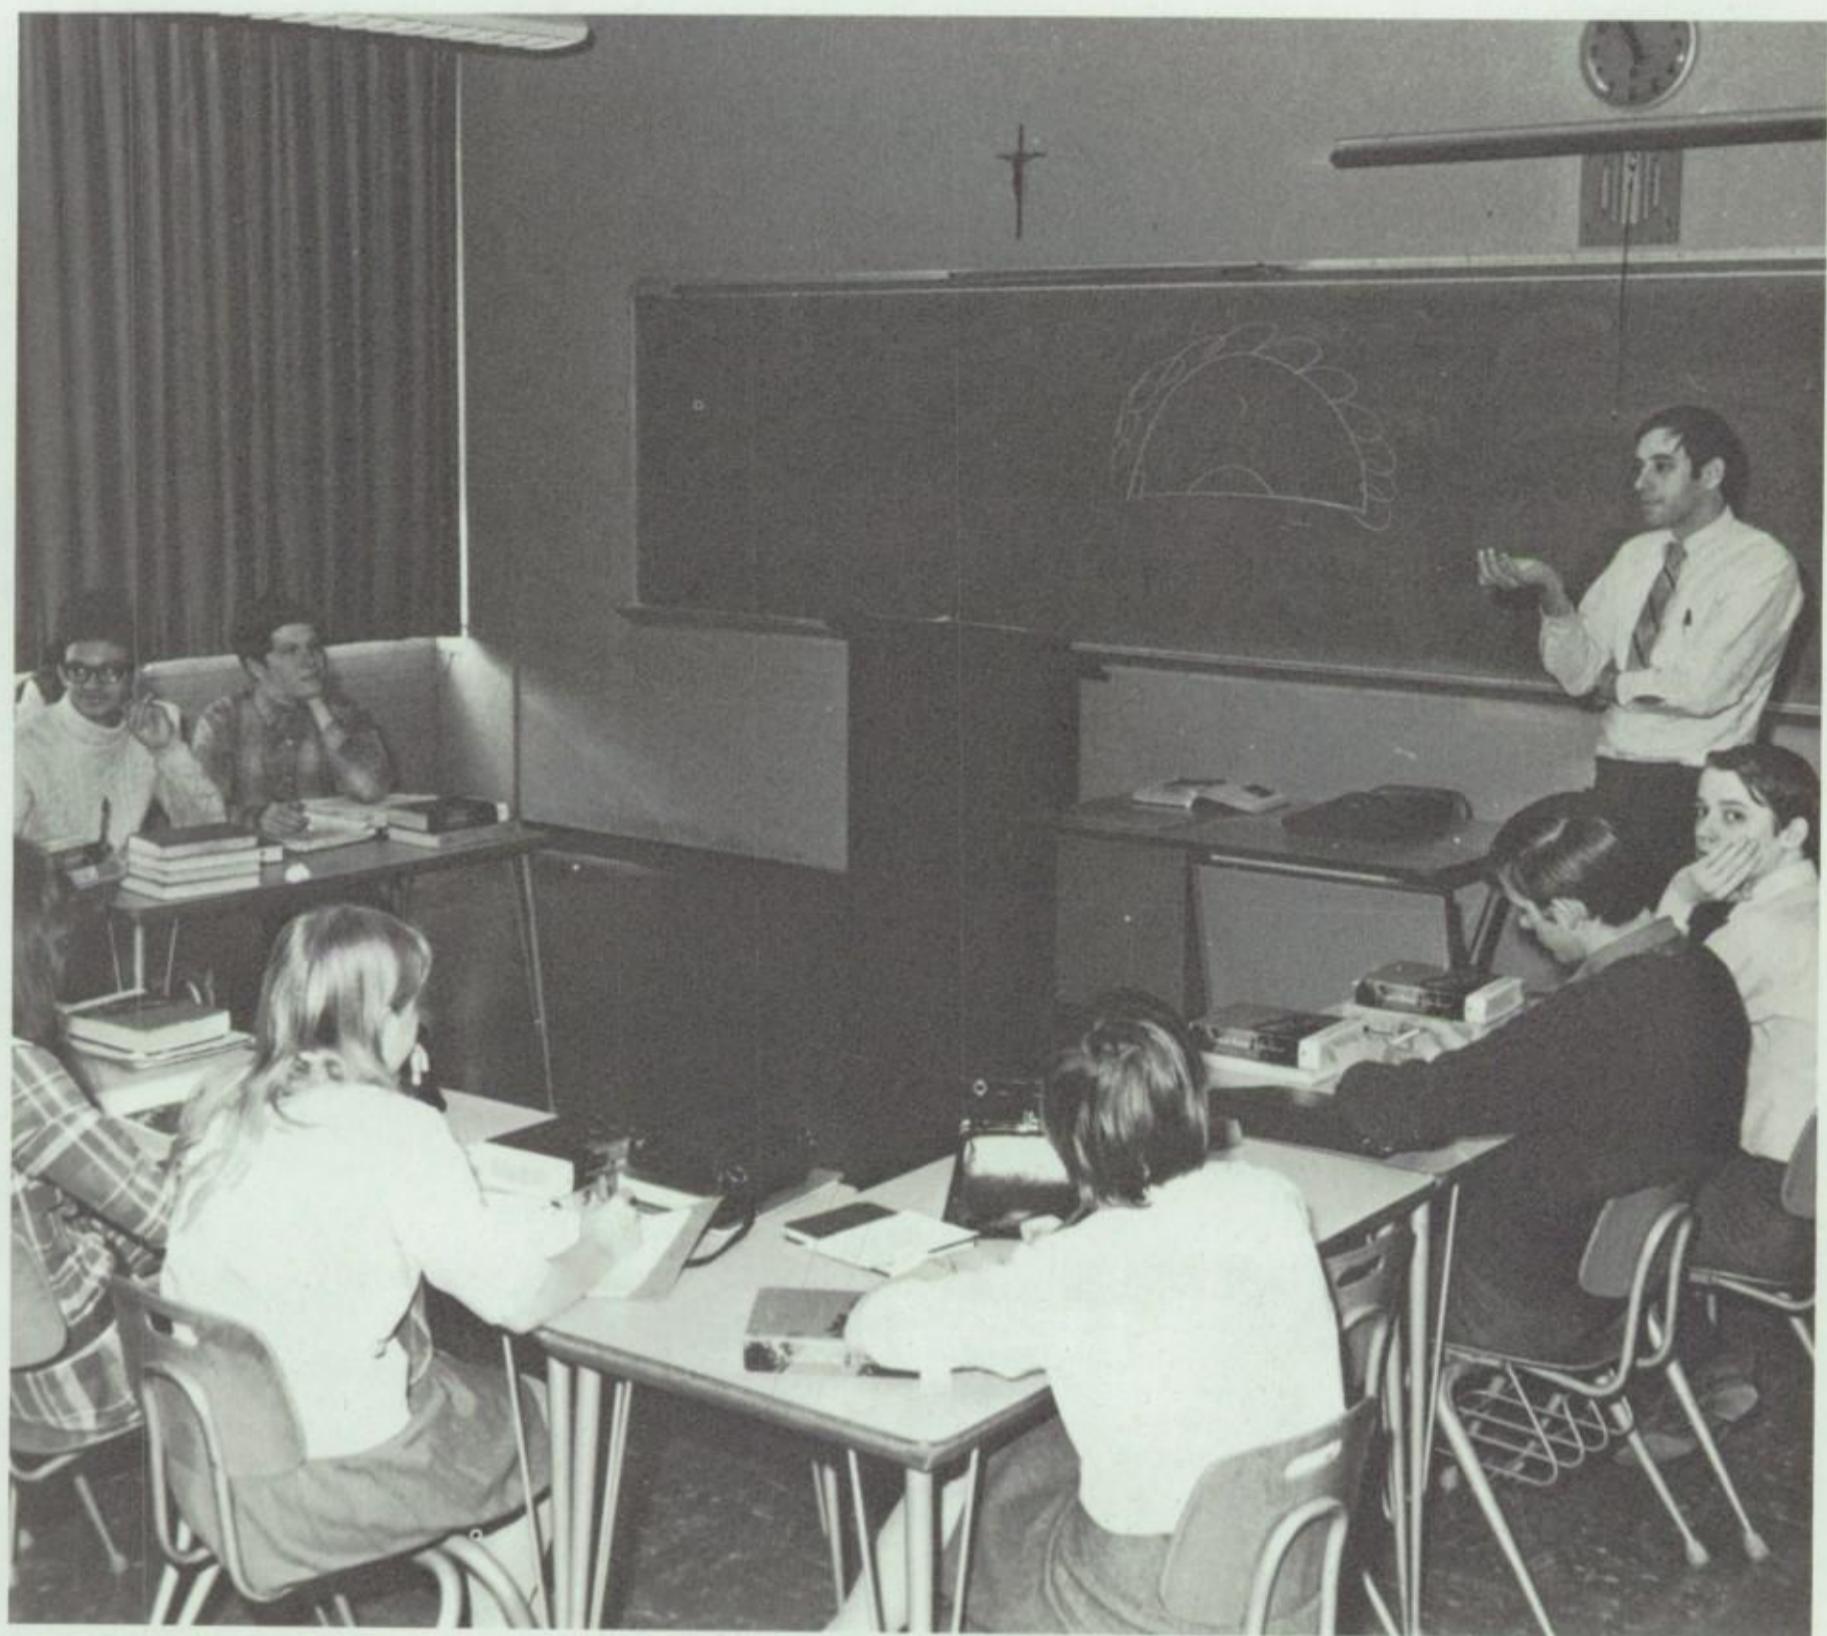

Mrs. Gurney explains family ties in "Romeo and Juliet."

English at Lutheran West is a required class. However, in the four years that it is required it is offered in a variety of forms. In English 9, freshmen are introduced to the novel, drama, short story, and poetry. They also learn basic grammatical skills. These basic skills are more fully developed in English 10. In Speech, Juniors are taught the fundamentals of public speaking by means of impromptu and prepared speeches, while in American Literature they learn the historical perspective of American writing. Seniors are offered a variety of English classes including Composition, Literary Appreciation, and English Literature. These help in preparation for college and future jobs.

Seniors enjoy reading "MacBeth" in Literary Appreciation.

Mr. L. Uhlig

Every student attending LHW is required to take one year of Algebra I or General Math. In his sophomore year, the student is offered geometry, where he is taught about lines, points, and planes. After completing geometry the junior then may take advanced algebra. A Senior is given the choice of taking advanced mathematics or Physics. Trigonometry and Analytic Geometry are studied in advanced math. Students taking Physics investigate and describe the world around themselves.

Mr. Uhlig instructs an Algebra I class.

Advanced Algebra students study the slope.

Students Confront

Mr. L. Meissner

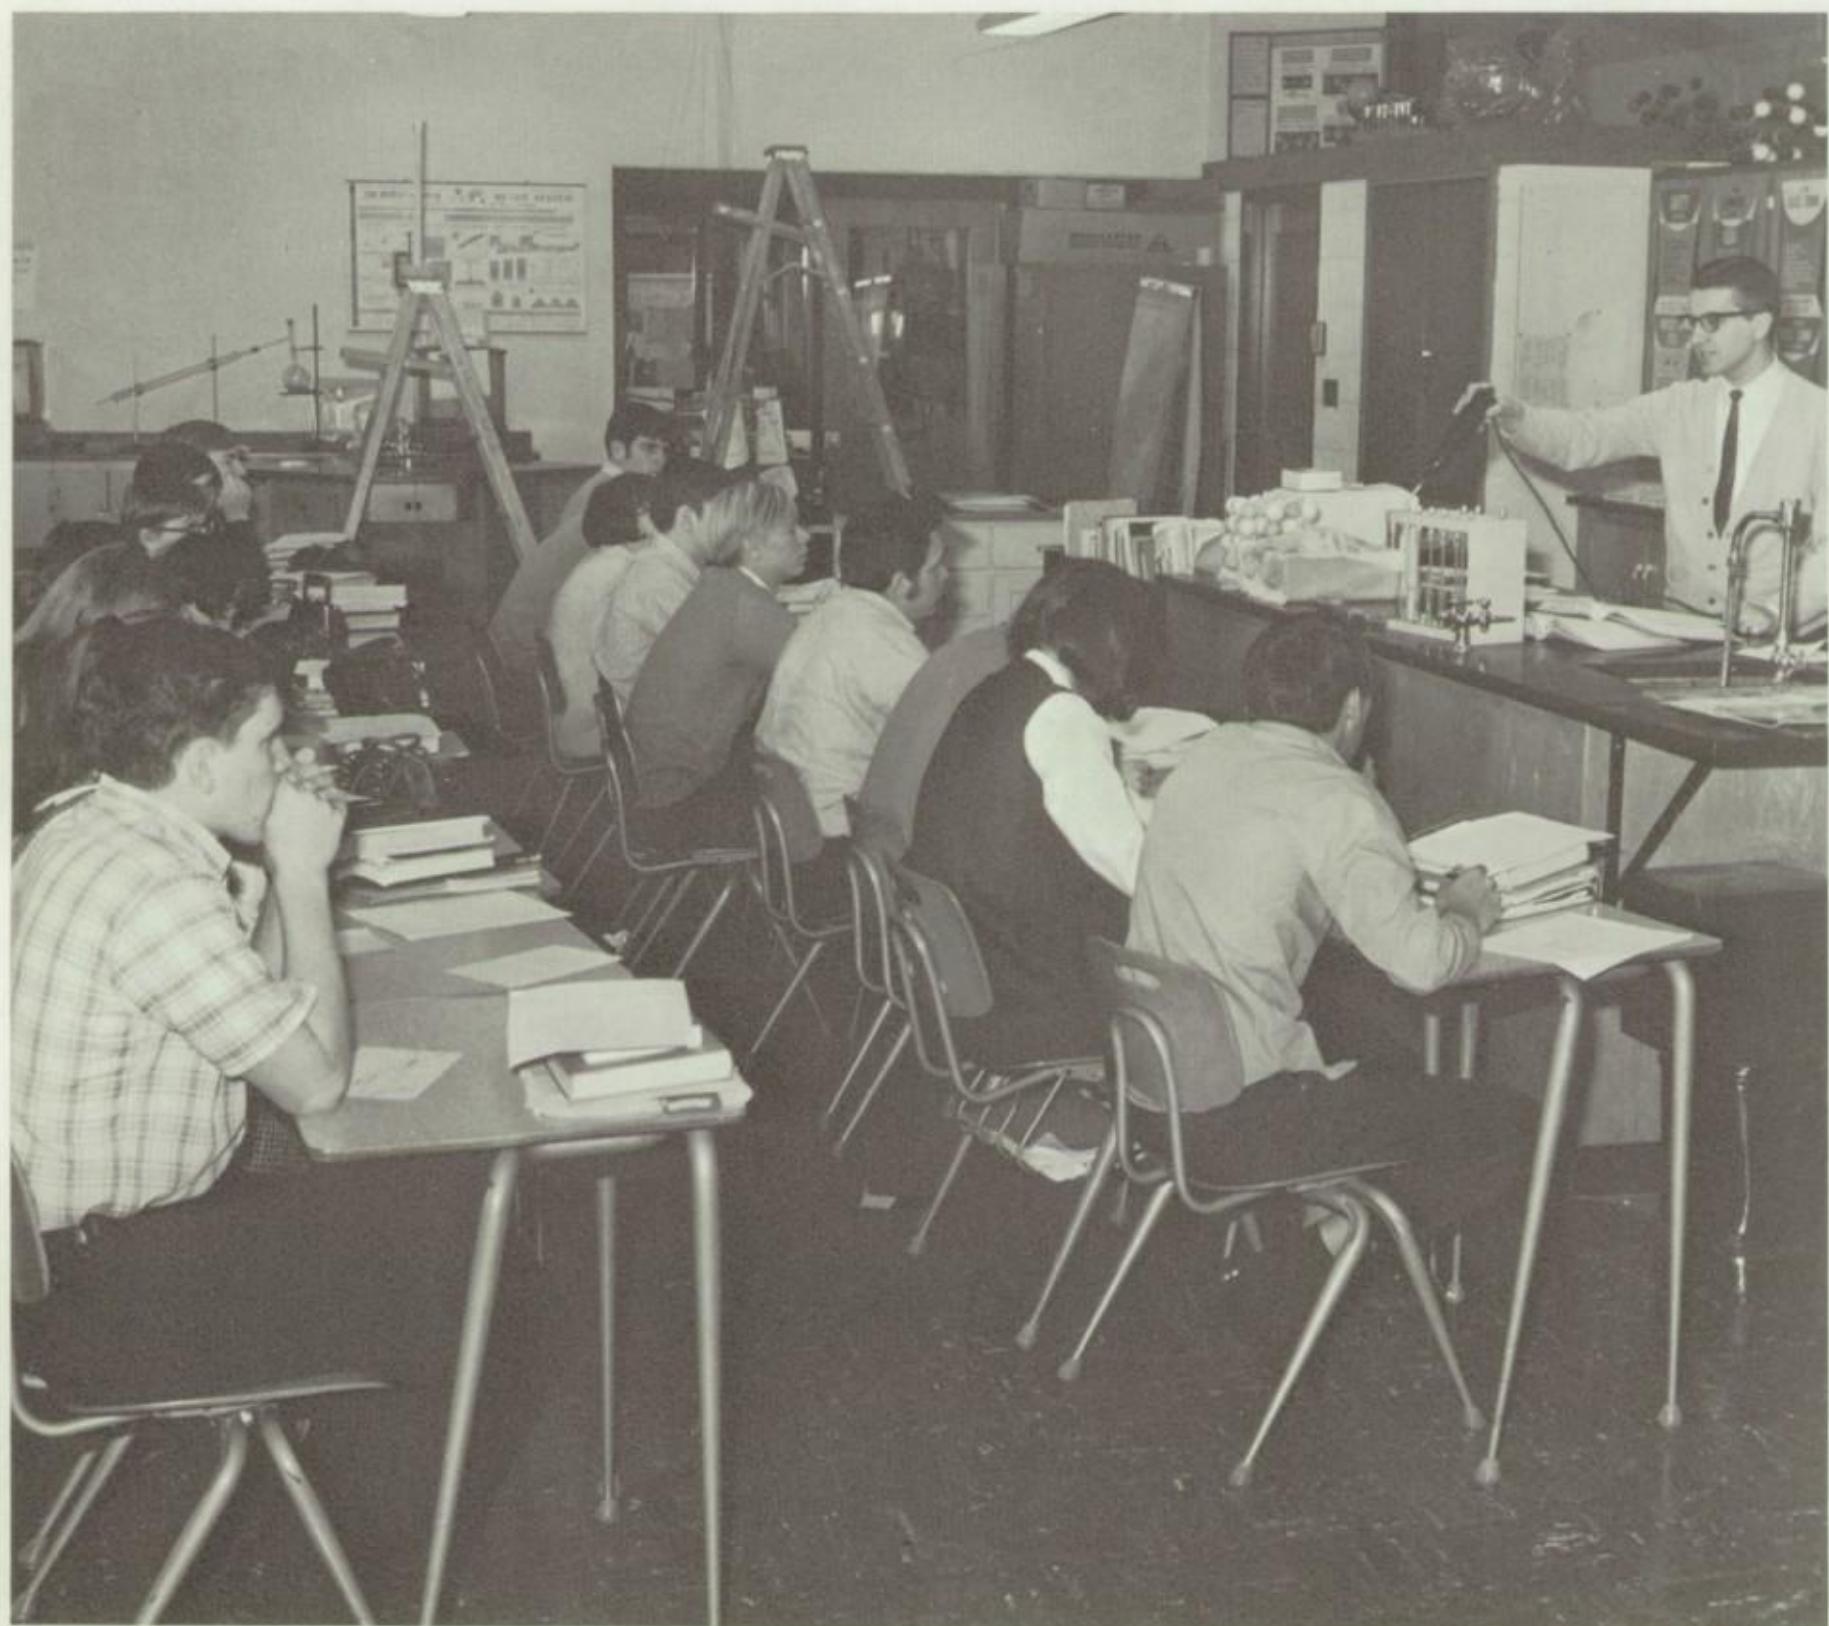

Mr. E. Ruth

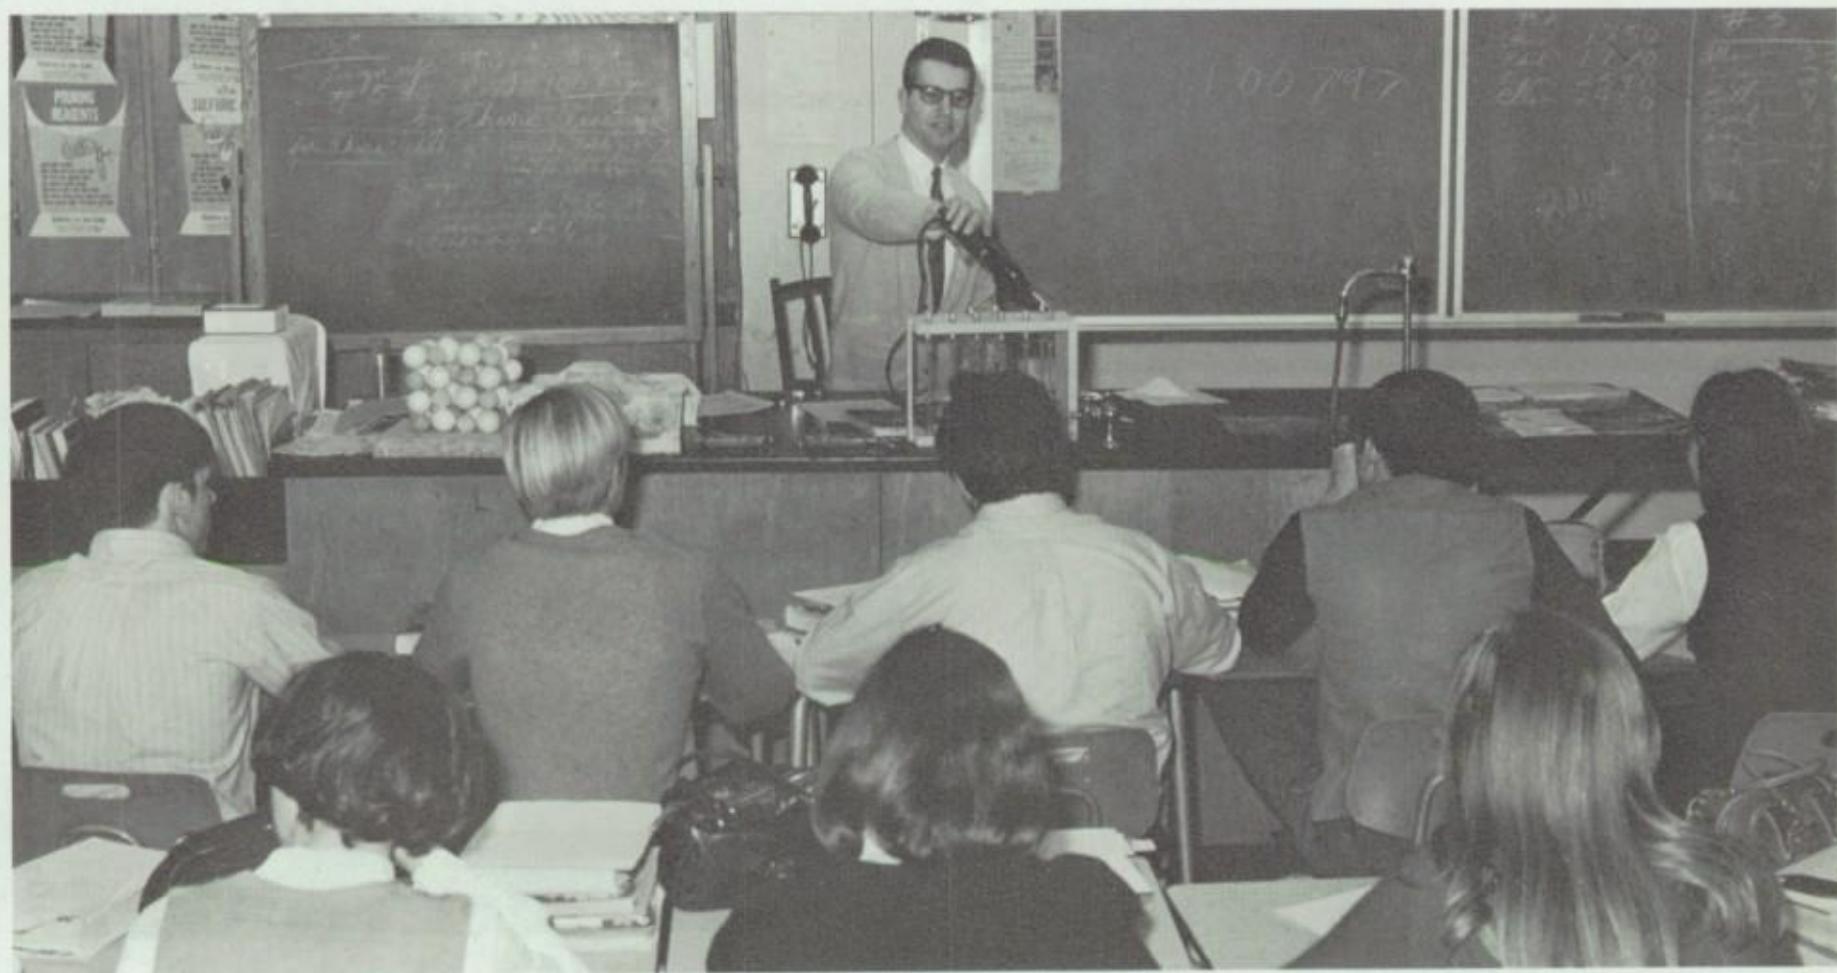

Mr. D. Trapp

Science classes are an important part of the courses offered at Lutheran High School West. Among the wide variety is General Science, which is offered to all students. Many sophomores take Biology, in which they learn of God's creation. Juniors indulge in either Chemistry or Physical Science, while seniors are given the opportunity to take Physics. Many of these classes have lab sessions which aid in learning and build interest in the class.

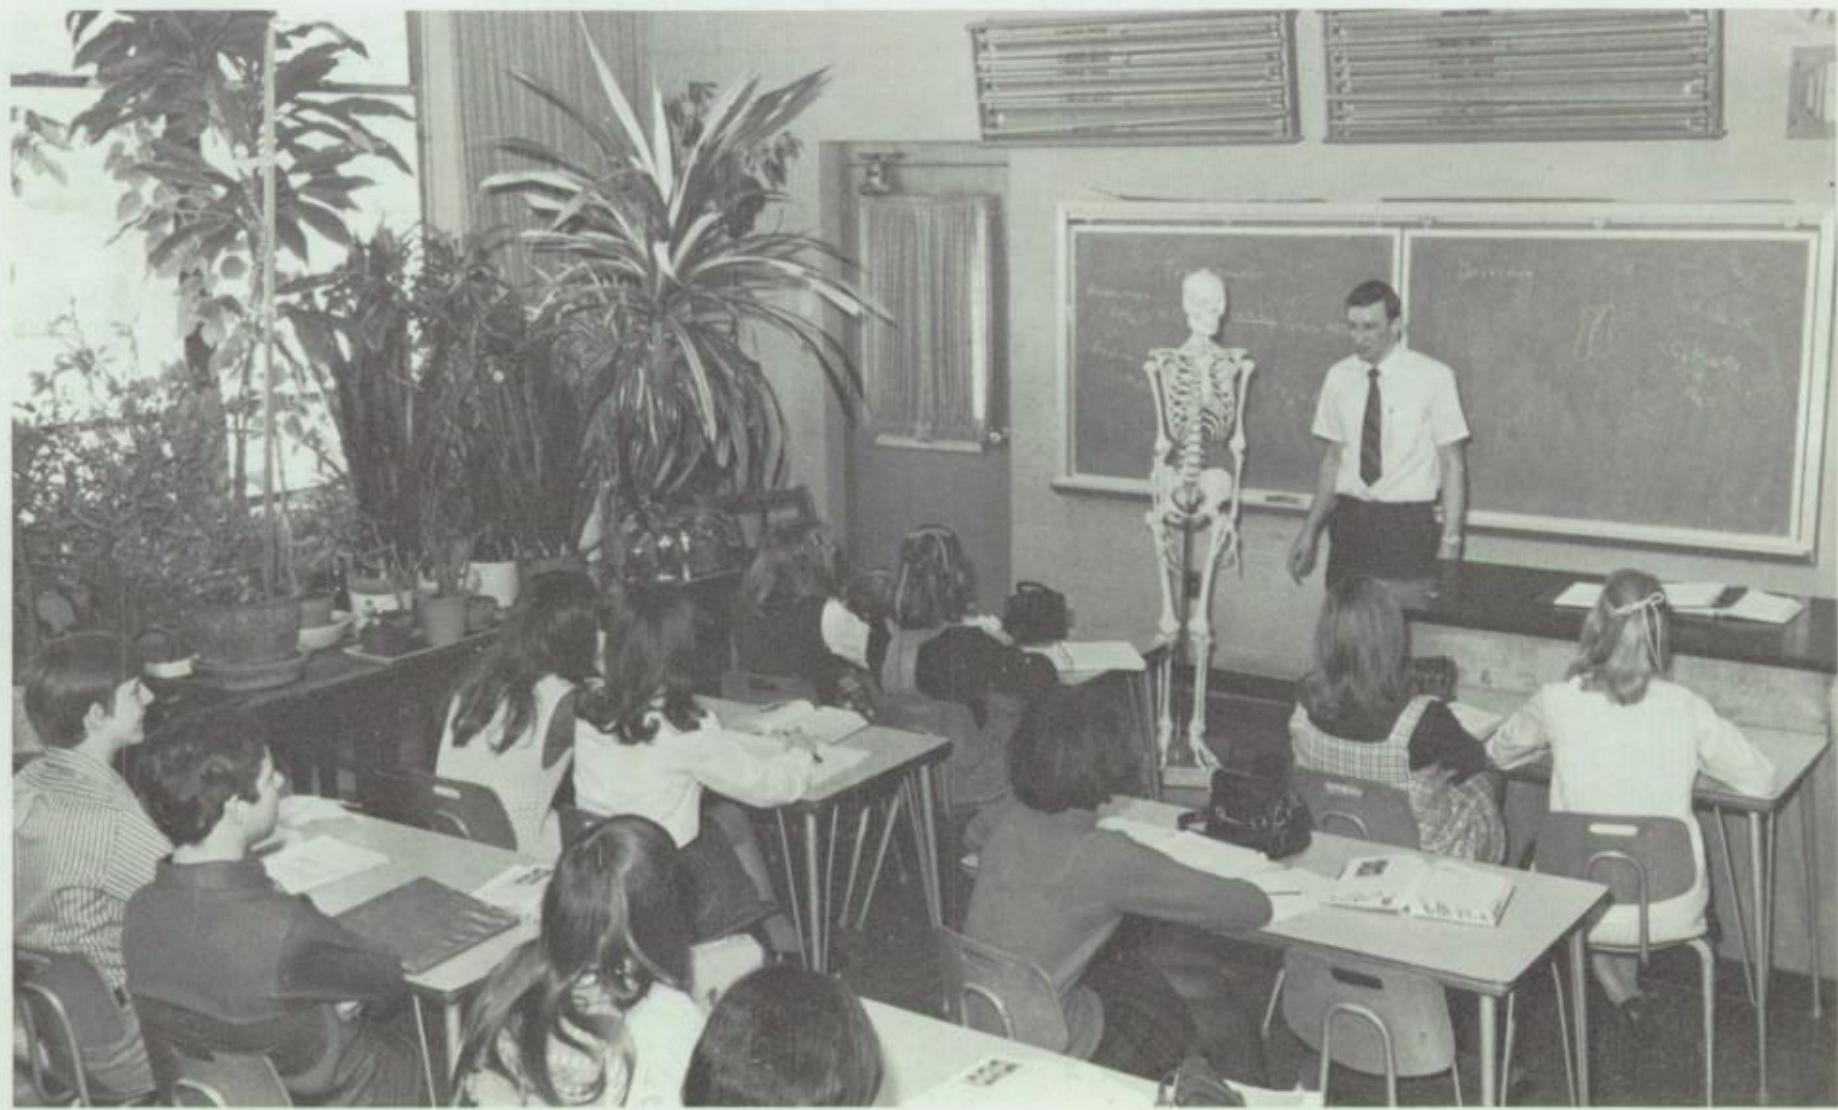

Experiments are helpful to Chemistry students.

Mr. T. Mueller teaches seniors about their society.

Students in Learning

People, places, and times are studied in the many and interesting courses offered by the social studies department at Lutheran High West.

World History deals with the study of ancient, medieval, and modern time. Social Studies helps in understanding our local community as well as our state's geography and historic background.

World Geography encourages the student to explore God's huge world.

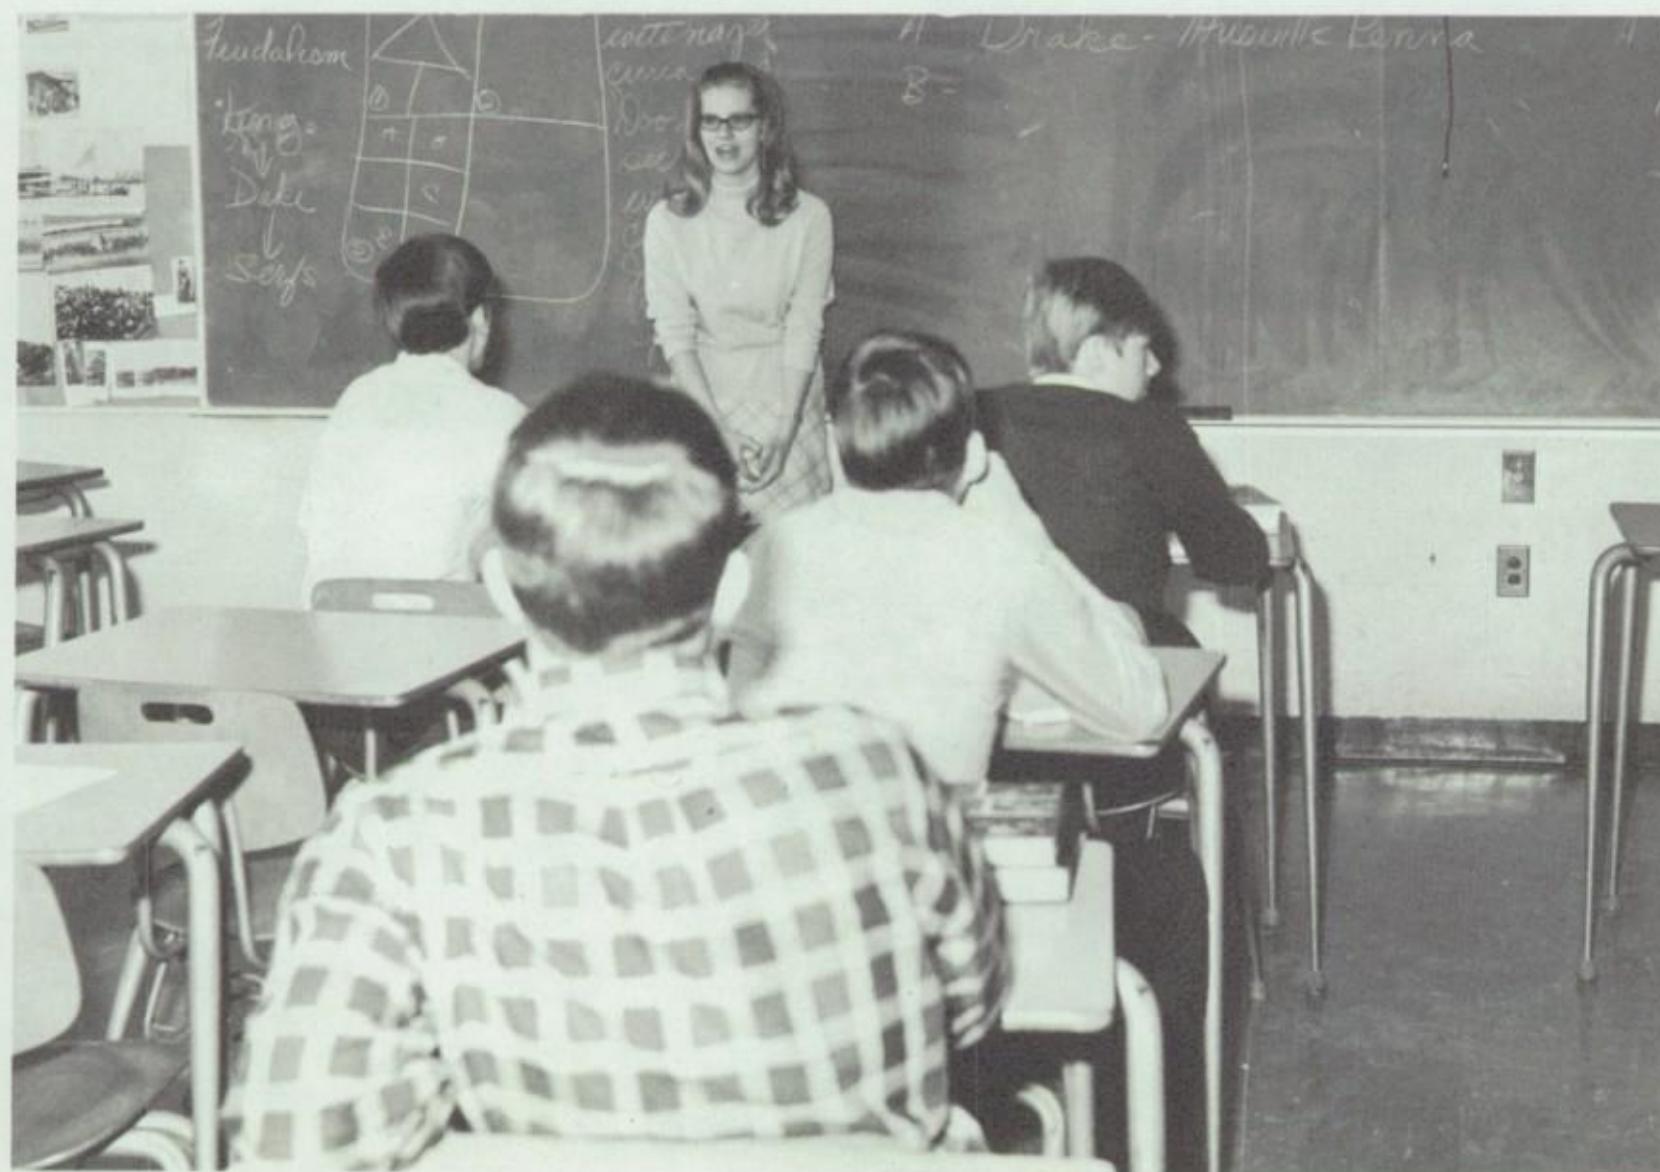

Political Science and Government help students become more aware of the structure of their own government as well as those of other countries.

U. S. History, a required class for juniors, unfolds the story of our country's heritage.

In Sociology, the student learns of current social problems. Senior Economics is taught by Mr. Stohlmann.

World Geography is an interesting class when taught by Mr. Nitz.

Juniors learn about feudalism in U.S. History.

Students Increase Knowledge

The foreign language department of Lutheran High West teaches two languages, German and Latin. The four different levels of German give the students a chance to become very fluent in the German language. This year the German Club has come about. The club enables those who are very interested in German to take field trips and see films. The Latin courses are of two levels. In these classes the students learn of the literature, life, and language of the Romans.

The business program is very essential to any student who plans to go into a business career. Among the classes offered are Typing I and II, and Personal Typing, which teaches students to type for office or personal needs.

Bookkeeping, General Business, Office Practice, and Shorthand I and II prepare students for life in the business world.

Mechanical Drawing I, II, and III teaches students many drawing techniques using various drafting instruments.

Mr. Splittergerber gives an assignment to a mechanical drawing class.

Produce Skills

Students find adding machines useful in office practice.

Vertical lettering is practiced by mechanical drawing students.

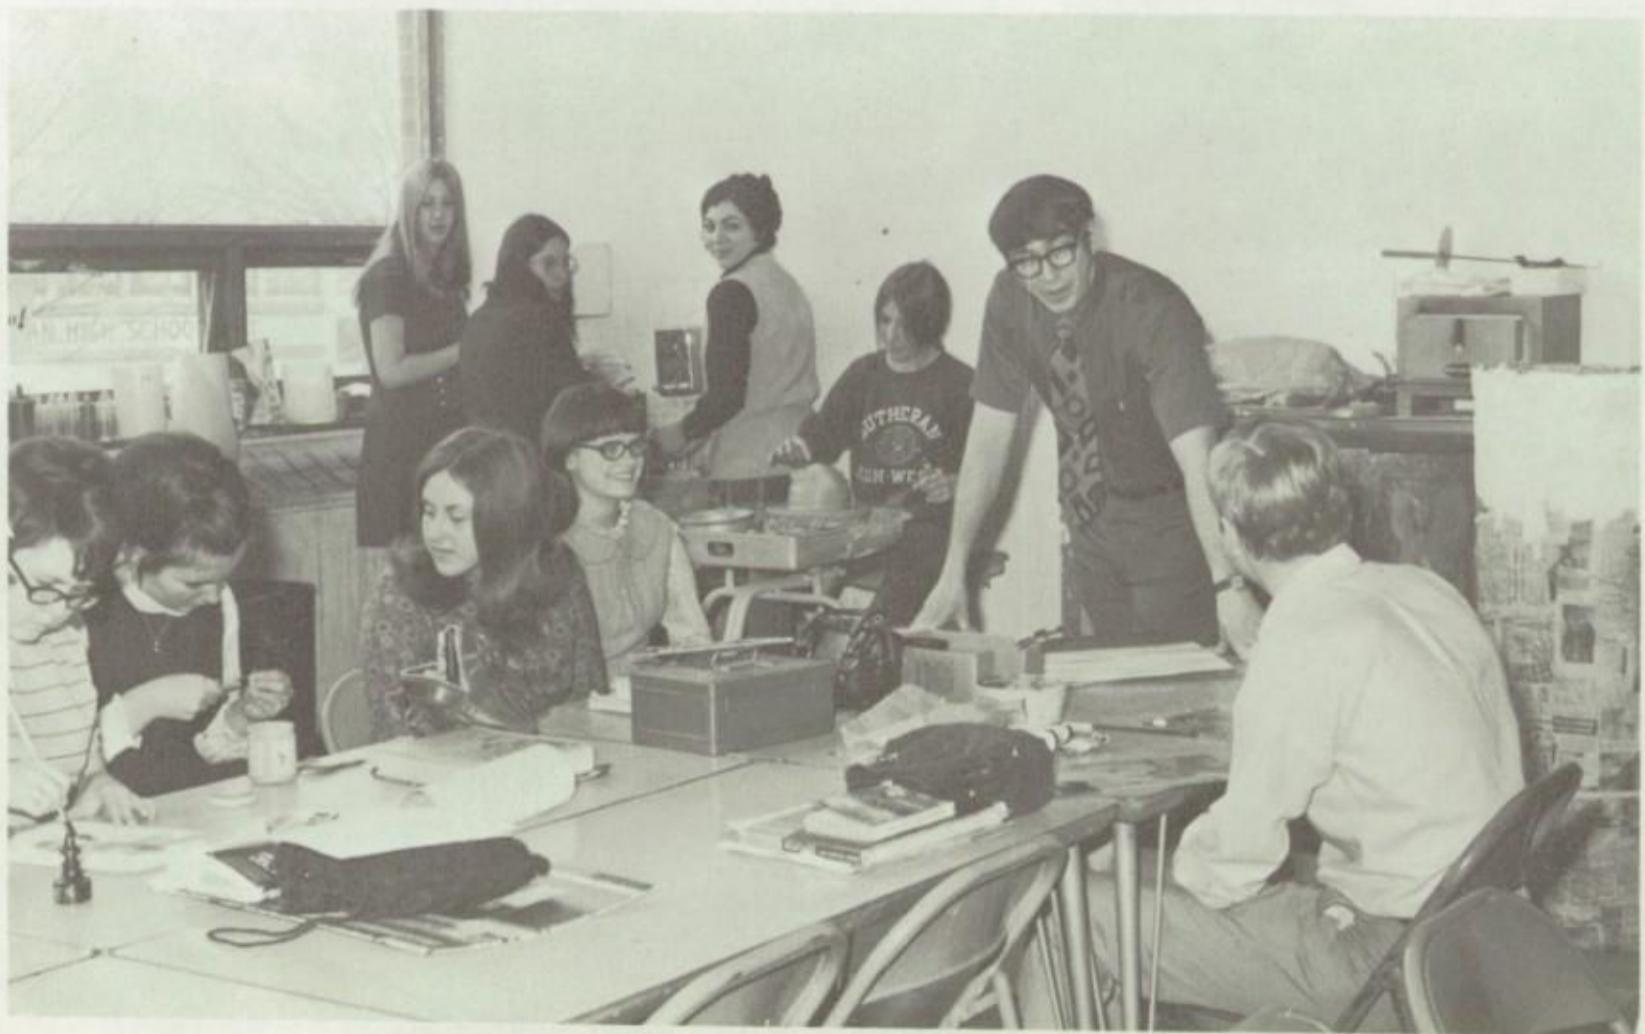

Mr. Brown times students during a test.

Art Puts Premium

Art I students work on papier mache.

Mr. K. Schmidt advises a student on his painting.

on Creativity

Art students enjoy their classes through the years at Lutheran High West. In Art I, the first year art class, the students learn the basic fundamentals of design, color, art history, and many techniques. Art II, III, and IV are spent in the development and experimentation of these techniques. Many fields of art are offered at Lutheran High West. Some of these fields include such things as: Batik design, a method using wax and dye on cloth; Pottery; Sculpture, using such things as clay, plaster, or papier mache; Painting, with water color, oil, or acrylic paint; Jewelry making, of silver, copper, or brass.

Miss B. Birkman explains papier mache.

Art II students work on numerous projects.

Painting and pottery interests all Art III and Art IV students.

Future Homemakers Learn

Skilled and detailed work is stressed during the Home Economics classes at Lutheran High. The four classes offered were taught by Mrs. Mauer during the first half of the year, but she was unable to return because she was blessed with a baby. She was replaced by Mrs. Schmidt and Mrs. Shull.

Fundamentals of nutrition, food preparation, and sewing are taught during Home Ec. I. Advanced techniques are offered in Home Economics II classes.

In Home Ec. III, family living as well as interior design, home management, and advanced techniques in tailoring are taught to each student. A coat or suit can be the result of many hours of work in this class.

Clothing, a course offered to junior and senior girls, teaches them additional training in clothing construction and selection. Three completed garments are required. Emphasis is also given to wardrobe planning and the care of all types of clothing.

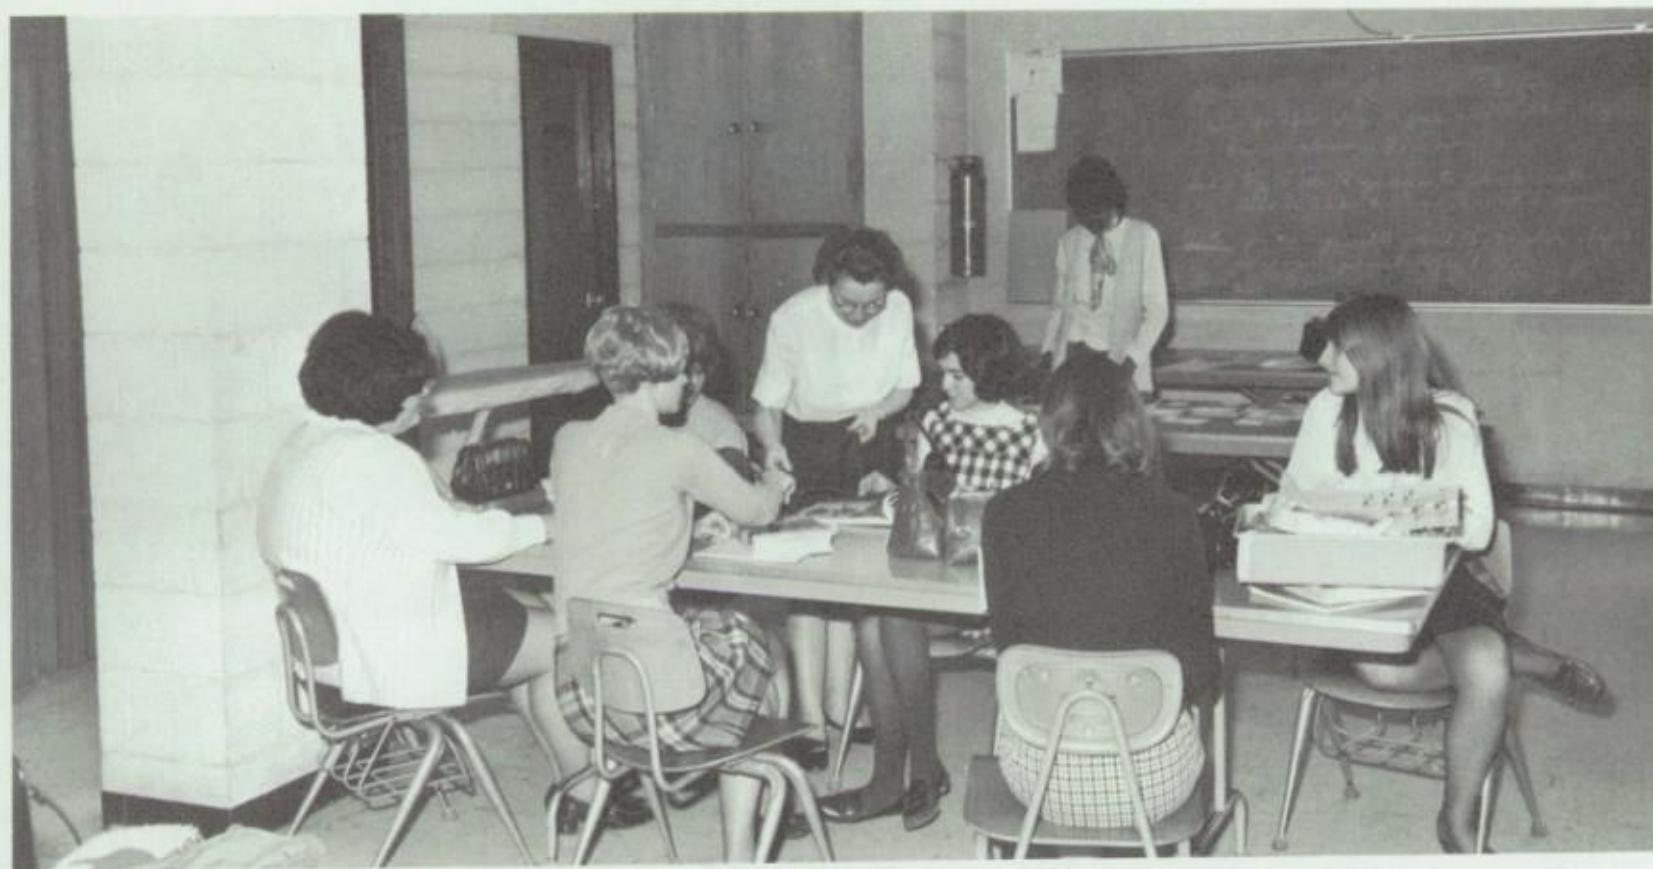

Mrs. J. Mauer

Freshmen girls learn about cooking in Home Ec. I.

From Home Economics

Mrs. Shull teaches students how to tack down facings.

Mrs. Schmidt grades reports, while students prepare to sew.

Physical Education classes are an important part of the day for many students at Lutheran High West. Freshmen boys, who are required to take Phys. Ed. I, develop their skills in sports such as football, broomball, track, wrestling, and softball.

In Phys. Ed. II classes boys further their athletic abilities by taking part in many competitive sports.

The Physical Education III classes participate in many recreational activities including volleyball, tennis, and handball.

This year, for the first time, a girls Physical Education class is being offered. The girls are bused to Nativity Lutheran School, a neighboring elementary school, where they may use the gym and locker rooms. The girls take part in sports such as field hockey, volleyball, track, basketball and softball. The girls enjoy being able to take Phys. Ed.

“Nativity Cantata” is rehearsed with Mr. Aumann.

The Senior Choir sang their Christmas concert at Guardian Lutheran Church.

School With Music

Mr. R. Aumann

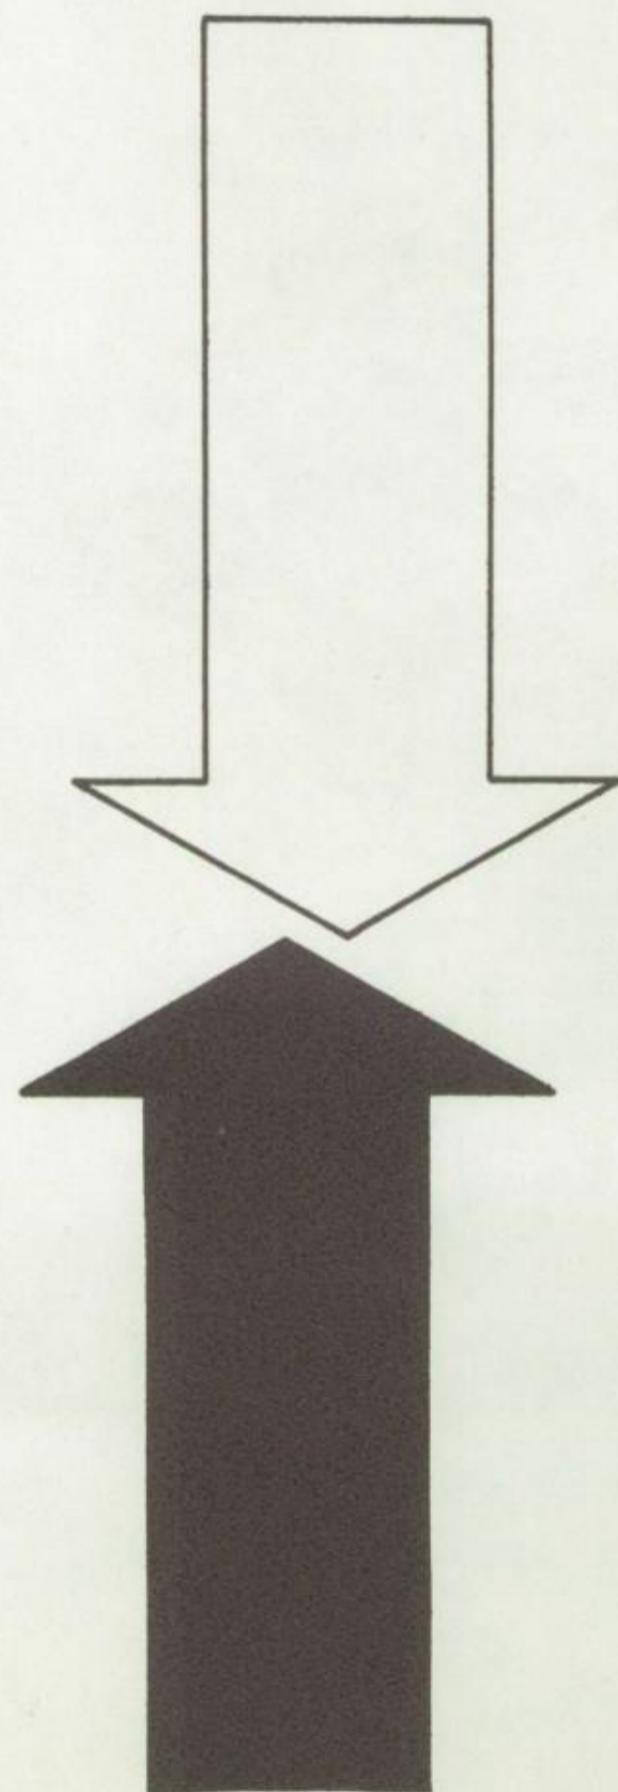

Lutheran High West is proud to have two successful choirs. The choirs are under the direction of Mr. Roger Aumann. The Junior and Senior choirs participate in a Christmas concert in which they perform alone and in a combined fashion. Many times throughout the year the choirs sing in the morning chapel services. A student director is sometimes used for these services. Each spring the Senior choir tours a number of cities. This year they will be performing throughout western Michigan.

The Band is another part of Lutheran West. The Band plays many times during the year as in football and basketball games, the Cabaret Concert, and the Tri-City Concert. The Cabaret Concert is an annual event which has proven to be very successful. The Tri-City concert is sponsored by one of the Lutheran High schools of Detroit, Cleveland, or Ft. Wayne. This year we are to be the sponsors. A wonderful concert for all!

Mr. H. Hendrickson directs the band in a rousing march.

Confrontation: Seniors Prepare to Meet World

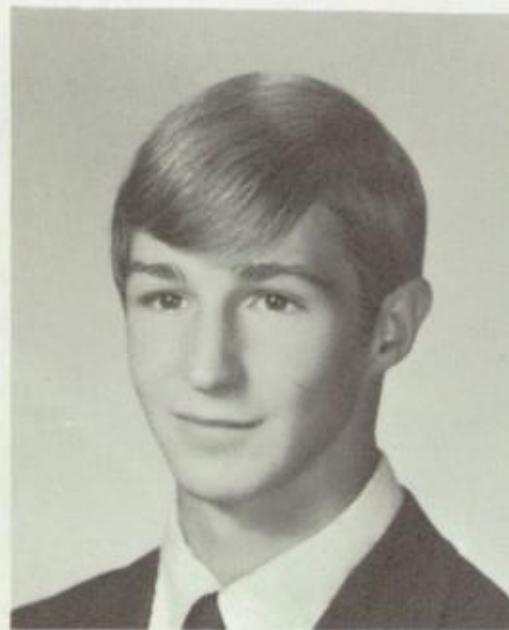

'70' Seniors Enjoy a Year

It has always been said that the Senior year of high school is the busiest. This is certainly true of the school year 1969-70. Early in October Seniors were already active in building a homecoming float. The Class enjoyed almost 100% participation in dressing up to the theme of their float on Thing Day. The girls emerged victorious again, as the boys cheered them on in the annual Powder Puff Game. Other activities included the Chicken Dinner, Senior Swim Party, and the Senior-Faculty game.

East Game Caps Leopards' Strong Finish

Action, spirit, and enthusiasm characterized Lutheran West's exciting football season. Leopard supporters enjoyed watching their team as they gained momentum throughout the season. Leopards showed they had hit full stride by demolishing River-view's hopes of a Mid-Wayne Conference title with a dramatic last-minute victory. Spirited by this victory, the Leopards went on to win three of their last four games including their final 38-14 triumph over Lutheran East.

This exciting finish could not have been accomplished without the effort of senior guards Paul Gar-chow, Gordon Graham, Chris Grindem, and Rick Remus; senior tackle Steve Finsterle; senior ends Chuck Glatfelter and Dewey Kyles; senior center George Gombasy; senior halfbacks Jerry Hill and Dennis Mayer; senior fullbacks Rick Wolfram and Gary Kamin; and senior quarterback Paul Shropa.

Mr. Dennis Tuomi, head coach, and Mr. Tom Mueller, defensive coach, inspired the team to battle for victory. The winning spirit that the team developed throughout the season will serve as a solid foundation for the teams of years to come.

JV's Strong in Spirit and Desire

Although their record seems unimpressive, the members of the Junior Varsity team may look on their season as a success. Team members succeeded in learning the basic skills of football and in developing a winning attitude. The "Little Leopards" showed promise for the future as inexperienced players developed their native ability. The spirit and determination that these players showed on the field will strengthen future Varsity squads.

Mr. Dan Grauer and Mr. Charles Wildauer, the coaches of the Junior Varsity, worked to instill the determination required for athletic excellence. The spirit which this team showed is something that Lutheran High West can look upon with much pride.

At the Mid-Wayne League meet Lutheran West placed second to a strong Riverview team. Len Hoppe again took first place honors with a time of 9:54. Both Len Hoppe and Bob Barker were named All League runners for finishing among the first seven in the League.

Round Ballers Hustle to Exciting Season

The 1970 Varsity Basketball team was a team of hustle and desire. No matter what the score of the game, the team never failed to give its all to the cause.

Among the seniors this year were, Phil Lopiccola, Dave Ellis, Mark Kamin, Dennis Mayer, Rick Hoffman, and Rick Wolfram. Other Varsity players this year were Mark Rottermond, Reese Singleton, Ken Gartha, Vern Swanson, Mark Westcott, Tim Kostelnik, Fred Schebor, and Cortez Armstrong. Under the leadership of Coach Mueller the team learned that ambition, hustle and desire are necessary to make a team.

With the possibility of eight returning lettermen next year, the Leopard's season outlook for the future continues to look better.

M. Westcott intensely concentrates on sinking a free throw.

R. Wolfram shows the hustle that characterized the 1970 team.

Freshmen, JV's Prepare for

The 1970 Junior Varsity team, coached by Mr. L. Meissner, gave an impressive showing for their audiences this season. Their season record of 10-5 truly indicates one of the best J.V. teams that West has had in years.

The season was highlighted by the game against Inkster, in which the J.V.'s scored the winning point in the last thirty seconds of the game. As the season progressed, they gained momentum. This momentum showed up, as the team won eight out of their last ten games.

The team was a well-rounded team, characterized by a well-balanced scoring attack and excellent bench strength. Coach L. Meissner drilled the team in fundamental skills of basketball.

Varsity Positions

The 1969-70 Freshman Basketball team gained much experience throughout the season, and showed a promising J.V. team for next year. Despite a disappointing record, all games were played with their class behind them, supporting them all the way.

The freshman coach, Mr. Charles Wildauer, instilled in the team the basic skills and attitudes all necessary for a winning team. Among these were good sportsmanship, desire to win, self-confidence, and team spirit.

Throughout the year, few people realized the time and effort put forth by the freshman squad in preparation for their games. The hard work of this past season will serve as an investment to winning teams in the future.

Matmen Pin 'em Again!

The 1970 matmen of Lutheran High West once again showed off their full strength during the wrestling season. Under the direction of Mr. D. Grauer, the wrestlers worked out daily after school in long sessions.

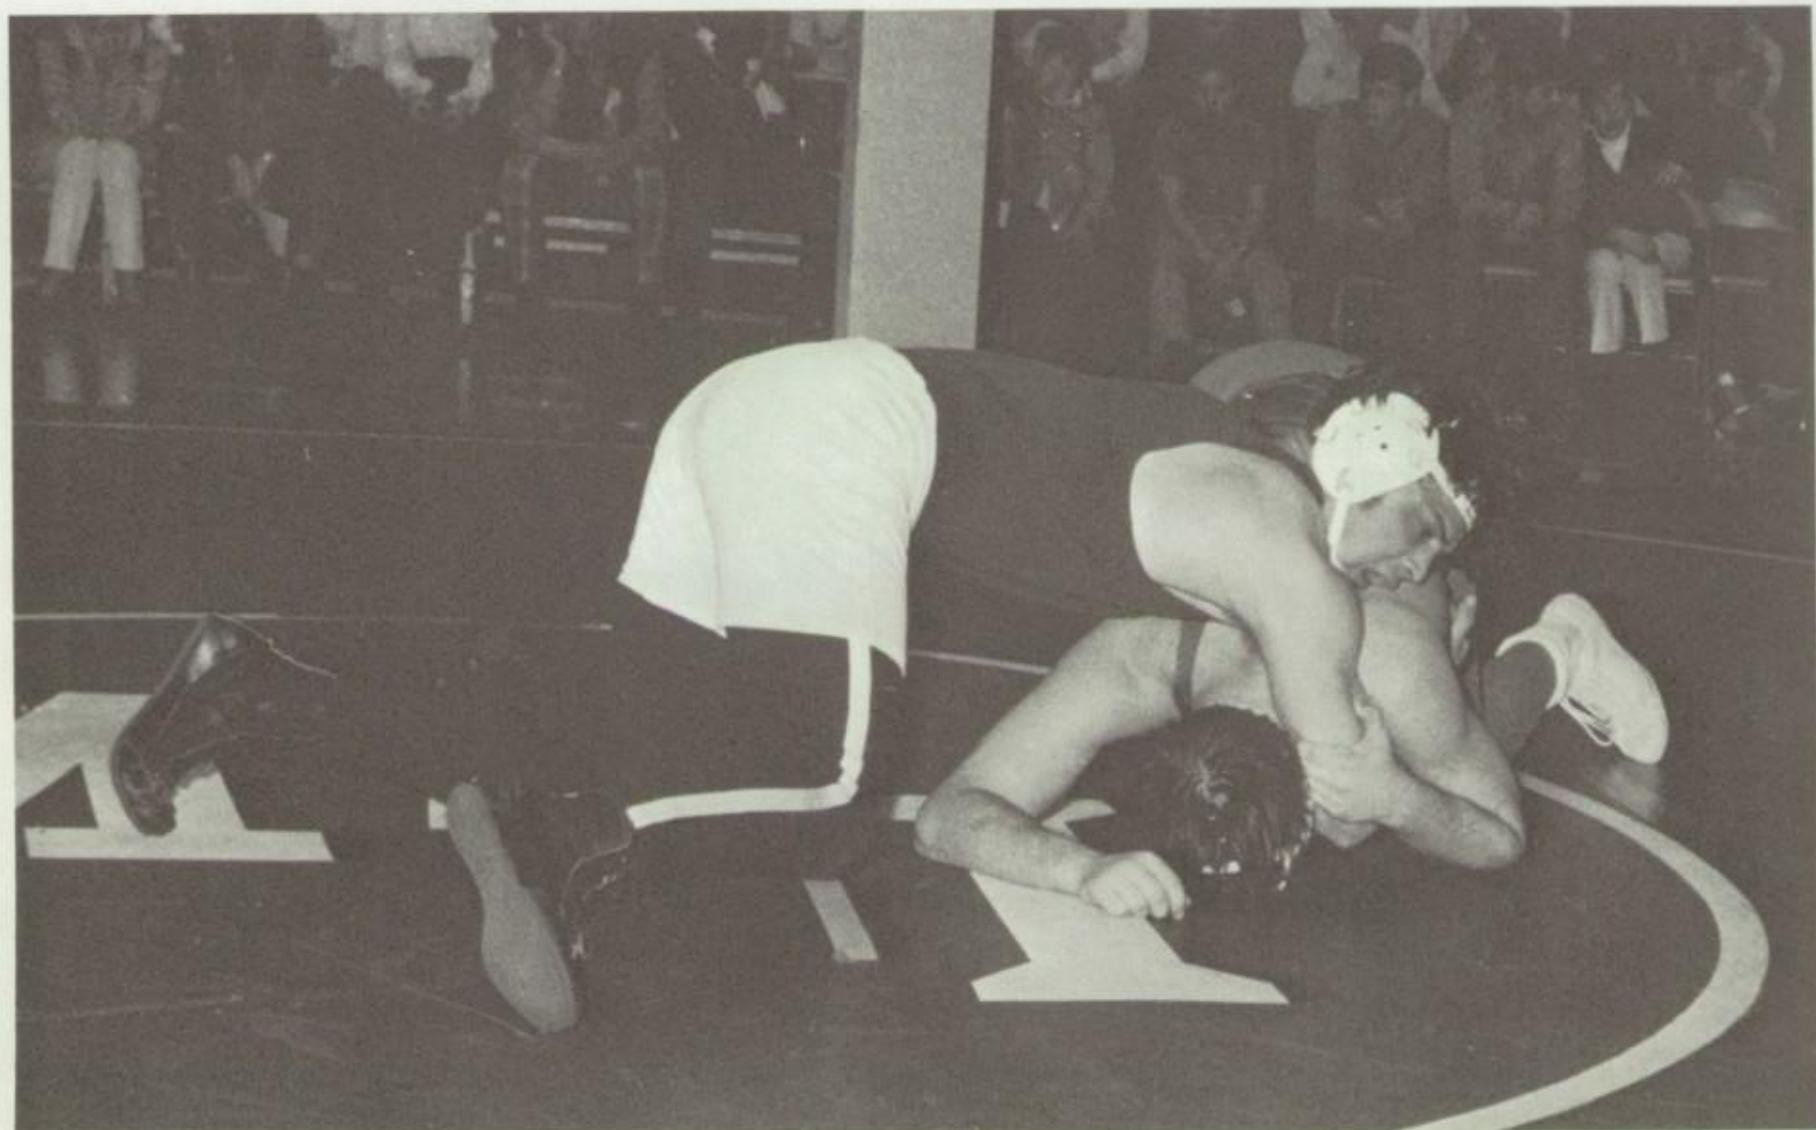

This year, West was fortunate enough to have had entries in the district, regional and state meets.

The results of the district meet were as follows: first place — 137 lbs. — Sam Pranschke, second place — 130 lbs. — Bruce Tuomi, third place — 145 lbs. — Gary Glatfelter, and — 175 lbs. — Dave Agee, and fourth place — 165 lbs. — Bob Rollins.

With most of the team returning next year, the matmen of the future have a lot of success to expect. They will show "West is best!"

Student Council

STUDENT COUNCIL OFFICERS: N. Cavan, Secretary; L. Ketelhut, Vice President; N. Mandeville, Treasurer; R. Wolfram, President.

Student Council's main objective is to lead the student body. Each homeroom has a representative who discusses with them the important matters which are brought up in Student Council. The committee chairmen work hard to raise school spirit. Leading the entire council is the executive board.

One of the major accomplishments of Student Council that was wrapped up this year was the final payment on the parking lot. The next big project of the council will be to lead the students in the building of the new gymnasium.

Any student can be active in Student Council. If he is willing to work, he will become an important asset to Student Council.

Through this important body, a better relationship through administration and student is established.

The National Honor Society is a select group of the student body who have attained high standards in the fields of scholarship, service, leadership and character. These scholars perform many services for the school such as tutoring students who request aid. Under the guidance of faculty advisor, Mr. K. G. Schmidt, the National Honor Society gives outstanding students a chance to use their abilities.

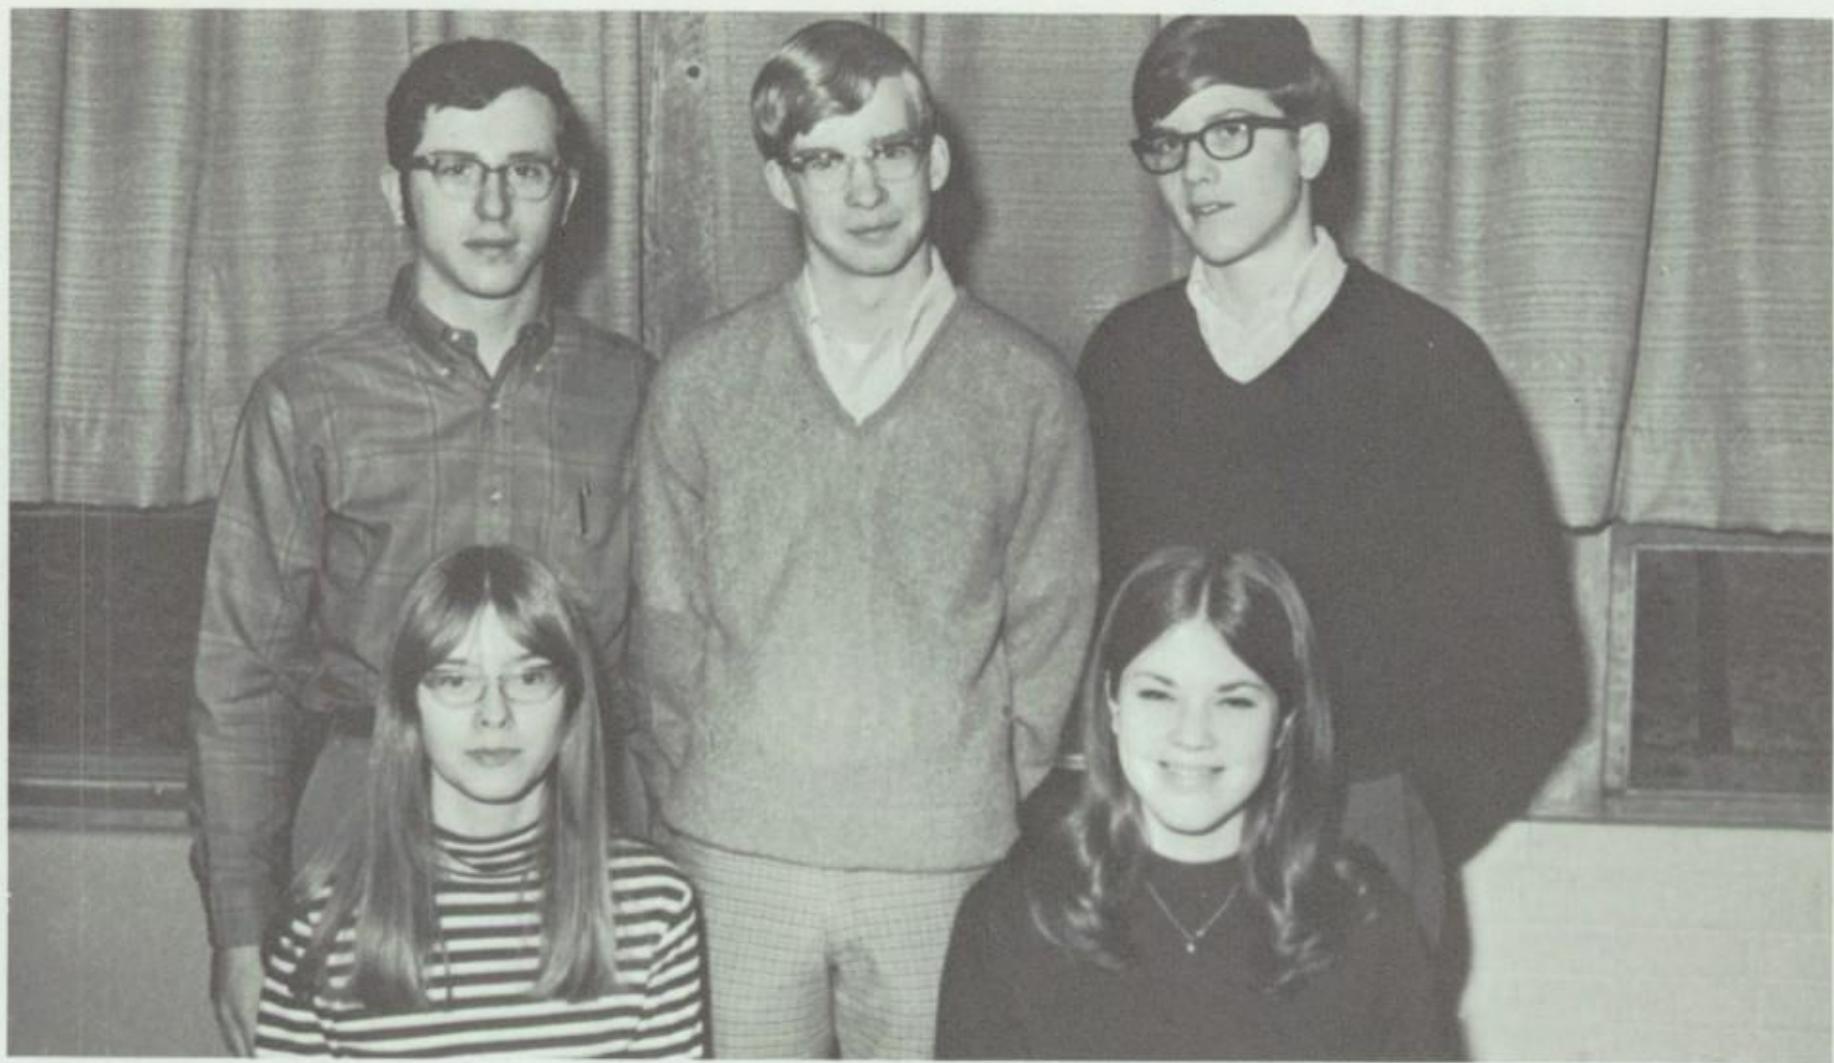

The Honor Conduct Committee receives much fan mail every week. This fan mail comes in the form of applications for Honor Cards. These Honor Cards give the students the privilege to move from place to place in the school without a pass from the teachers. The Honor Conduct Committee sees that applications for honor cards are submitted to teachers for evaluation.

Honor Society members serve as tutors during Study Hall.

Office, Kitchen Staff Serve School

The office receptionists and attendance clerks serve the school in many ways. These hard working girls help Mrs. Borrusch with attendance, typing, phone service, and making dittos when needed. The formidable staff of receptionists help by meeting people in the office and by doing errands when necessary.

The cafeteria staff serves the student body throughout the year, making Lutheran High's hot lunch program run smoothly. These hard working people daily prepare and provide hot lunches for all who want them. Besides the regular hot lunch program, the staff also provides a milk counter for those people who wish to buy milk only. Through the efforts of the cafeteria staff, the L.H.W. stay fat and happy.

Cheerleaders Work To Unite Spirit

"Two bits, four bits, six bits, a dollar, all for cheerleaders, stand up and holler!" Although it is not the same cheer used in a game, it's a cheer for the Freshman, J.V. and Varsity cheerleaders. The three squads may be found practicing any day after school in the halls during the football and basketball season. The results of these practices are evident as the cheerleaders arouse spirit at all the games.

Leading the squad of Varsity cheerleaders were seniors Linell Krepsky, Joann Raschefskey, Marcia Thomas and Jan Weal. Other Varsity cheerleaders, Cheryl Godra, Sandy Thiede, Kathy Goode, Brenda Tuomi, and Carol Copple complete a unit that puts on skits and arouses school spirit.

West is truly fortunate to have these three squads of cheerleaders.

Hi-Steppers are One in Spirit

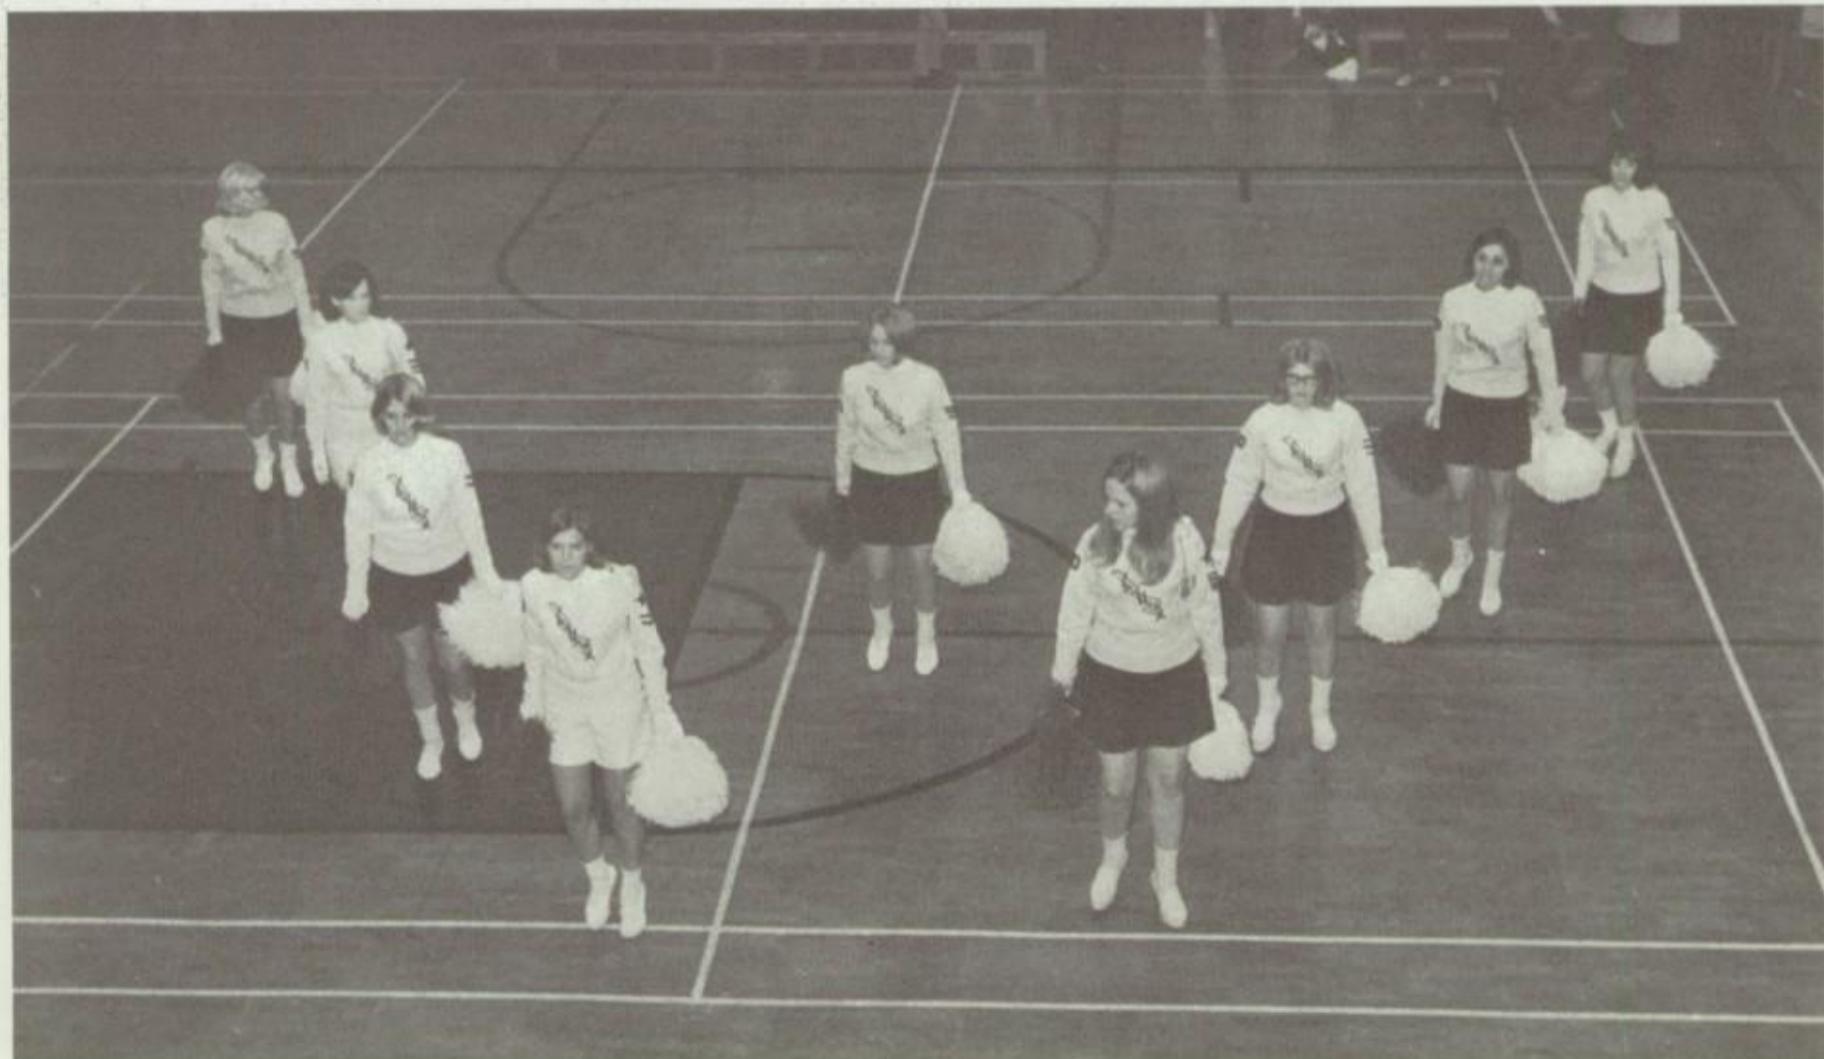

Anyone walking in the halls at Cody, just before half-time at basketball games, would witness mass chaos. Twenty-five very happy, nervous and excited girls are running about asking if they look O.K. and making last minute preparations. But that's the fun.

Among the many appropriate things they've formed this year were the ever popular peace sign, at the Inkster game, and "70". For the East-West game, the girls went through long practices trying to perfect the routine so as to show East that "West is best"!

Mrs. Pierce, sponsor, and Sue Bacalis, captain have volunteered many hours of their time in order to make the Hi-Steppers a success. The squad is active at both football and basketball games and tries their best to promote spirit.

Choir an Important Part

Walking down the hall just before Christmas one can often hear strains of "The Hallelujah Chorus" and "Hark the Herald Angels Sing" coming from room 121. These songs, as well as many others, both traditional and contemporary, are practiced by West's two choirs up until the annual Christmas concerts are presented. It is because of all this hard work that the Junior and Senior Choirs, under the direction of Mr. Roger Aumann, have earned the fine reputation they have.

However, Christmas is only the beginning of their many performances. Throughout the year the Senior Choir sings at a number of churches for dedications and other types of services. Along with the Junior Choir they often perform at West's chapel services. The high point of the year for the Senior Choir takes place in the spring when they go on the annual tour. This year's tour took them to Lapeer, Tawas, Midland, and Frankenmuth. Both choirs experienced profitable and enjoyable years.

Directed by Mr. H. Hendrickson, the A and B Bands are organizations for students who wish to develop their musical skills.

Due to the many hours of practice, the band is able to participate in varying activities. For example, marching in football games, playing for basketball games and performing in four concerts throughout the year. The largest event is the Annual Tri-City Music Concert which is hosted this year by L.H.W. Band members from Cleveland and Fort Wayne will come to Detroit and combine with our bands to present a concert at Ford Auditorium for one evening.

Drama Club Produces New Ideas

Drama Club has once again enjoyed a successful year. The excellence drama club is known for has been noticeable from the first to last play this season. The year opened with the children's play, "Many Moons". The play centered about Princess Lenore's one dream that could not be filled by anyone. However, Vickie Vergelt, as the jester, finally helped Princess Lenore achieve her dream.

The second play during the year was "Miracle Worker". This play was highlighted by the roles Sarah Gabler and Debbie Westcott played as Helen Keller and Annie Sullivan.

A new idea in drama was introduced at West this year: the dinner theater. The audience was given a full course meal, then was entertained by three one act plays.

"Well done thou good and faithful servant." These are Christ's words, and can be applied gratefully to those people who served this year to help West's chapel services run smoothly and beautifully. Three groups offered daily service: ushers, acolytes, and organists.

The ushers take responsibility for several aspects of the service. Before the service, they distribute hymnals and other devotional materials. They take the weekly offering.

The acolytes insure the orderliness of the chancel by lighting the candles at the beginning of the service, and extinguish them reverently at the close of the service.

The chapel organists beautify the service by providing a musical worship. By playing a prelude, a postlude, and by accompanying the hymns, they make the service more meaningful.

Pep Club and Majorettes Help Promote Spirit

This year the drum majorette, Pam Durrett, led the squad in varying activities throughout football and basketball seasons. Assistant drum majorette, Louise Lonsdale, would often take over in Pam's absence. During football season both the varsity and junior varsity majorettes performed at half time. They assisted the band in marching and forming various formations. On occasion, their routine was highlighted by twirling fire batons. During basketball season, the majorettes also provided the half time entertainment. Records were used to accompany them with their routine. Along with all these activities, the majorettes have also marched with the band in Memorial Day parades in the past.

Majorettes lead the band in the Homecoming parade.

Media Center Aids

Comp. I, taught by Miss Birkman, is held in the Media Center.

A media center is more than a repository for books. It is a place where students can further their education by using not only books, but records, tape recordings, filmstrips, magazines and film loops. It is the center for many educational activities.

The operation of the media center would be impossible without the dedicated effort of the student Library Assistants. These workers offer many services that often go unnoticed and unthanked, such as: shelving books, making sure that the books are arranged in proper order in the shelves, and making sure that all the books are in good repair.

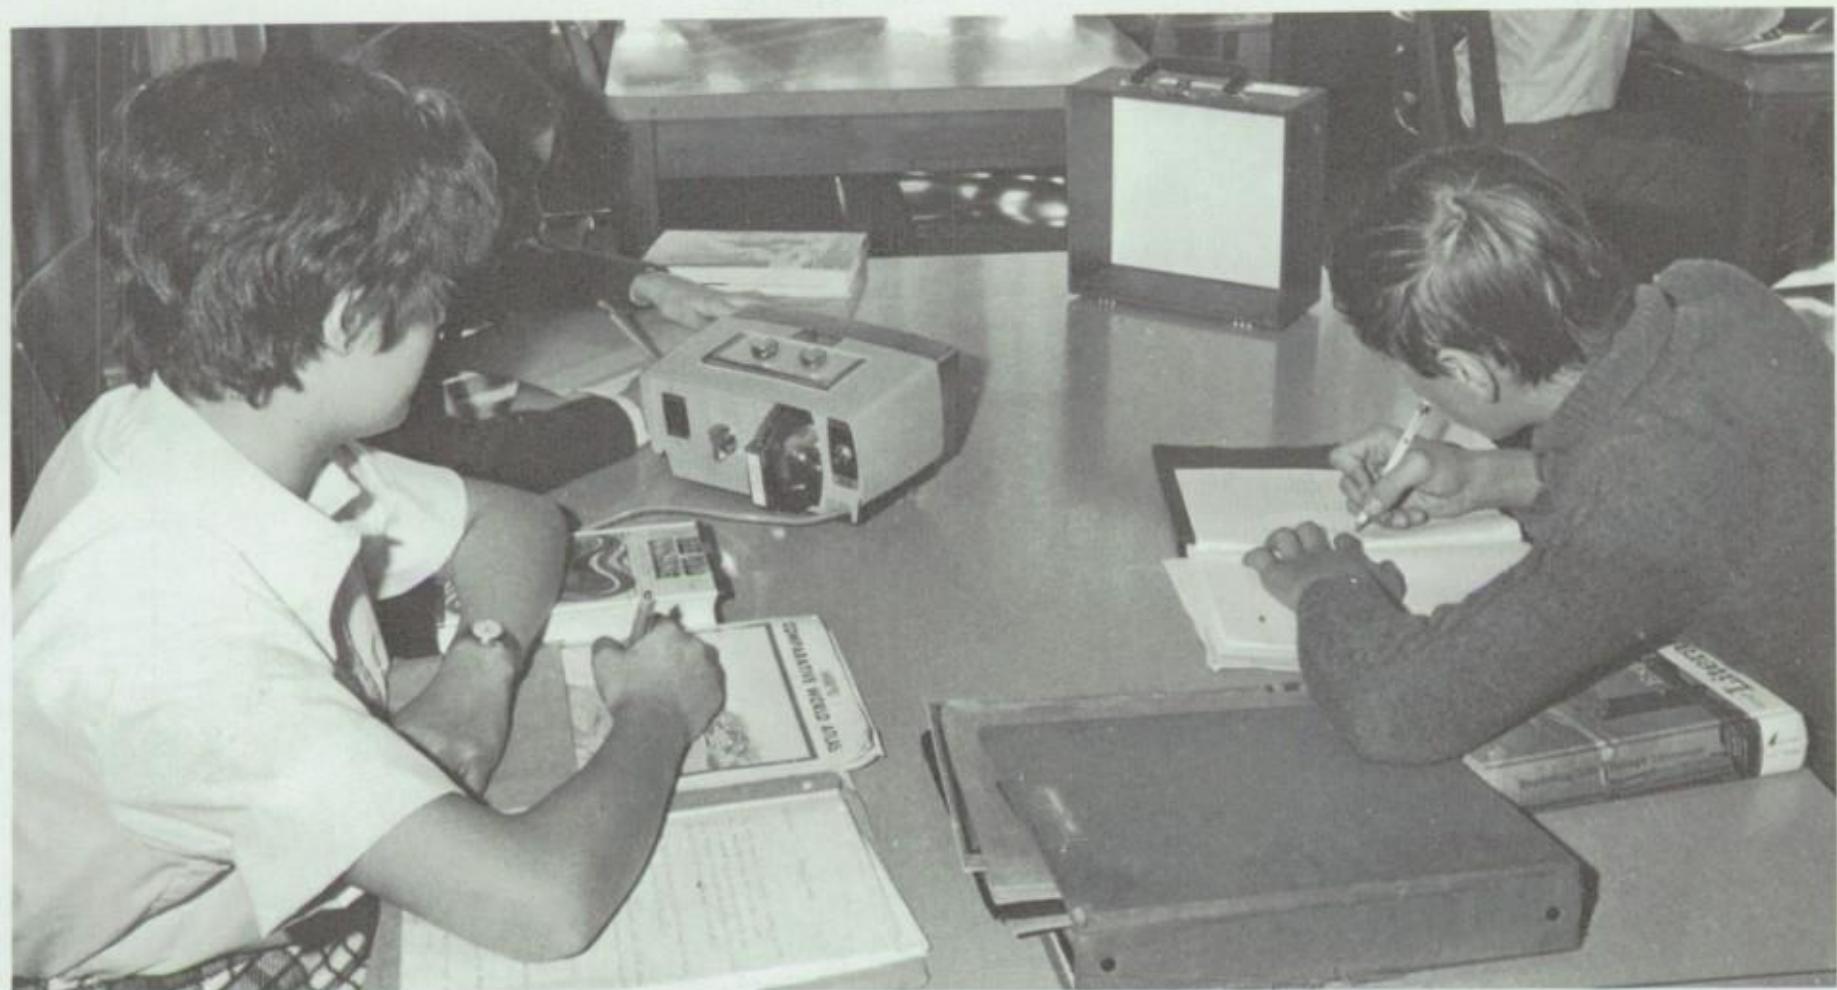

The Library Assistants, under the direction of Rev. H. C. Dequin perform these important services cheerfully and also efficiently.

Minded Students at West

The Girls' Athletic Association is for the sports minded. Any girl may participate in GAA. Originating at West this year, GAA is working on involving more girls in sports. Giving everyone a chance to compete against classmates, intramurals were sponsored at Rosary gym. Basketball and volleyball intramurals give girls a chance to improve skill and sportsmanship, besides enjoying the companionship. Assorted sports activities offer each girl a chance to participate in a favorite sport. As the club grows, the involvement of more girls will be inevitable.

Rounding out the extra-curricular sports scene, the Ski Club offers both novices and old pros a chance to learn new skills and to perfect their skiing techniques. The club highlights its activities with trips to nearby slopes on snowy weekends.

GAA members enjoy playing field hockey after school.

'Think-Clubs' Set Minds to Work

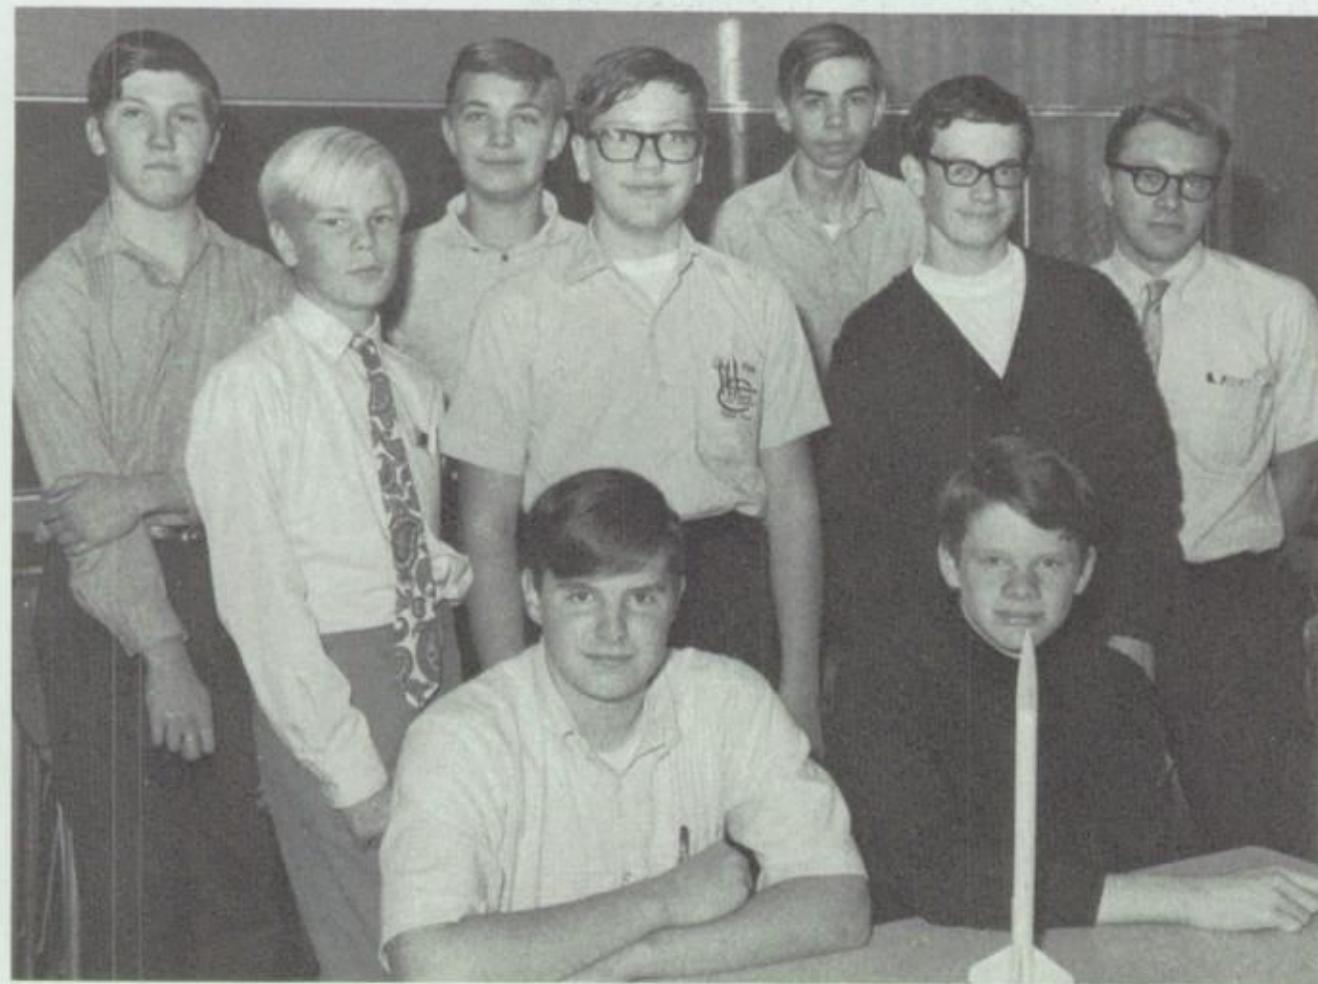

Lutheran High West presents a wide variety of extra-curricular activities that offer the students a chance to develop their minds. Among these activities are Chess Club, Math Club, and Rocket Research Club. The Chess Club, sponsored by Mr. Harvey Hendrickson, meets regularly to sharpen their skills and learn new strategies. The Math Club meets to untangle thorny mathematical problems under the direction of Mr. Larry Uhlig. The Rocket Research Club, encouraged by Mr. Dale Trapp, has soared to new heights with their rockets.

Science Club, Future Nurses, Learn Through Experience

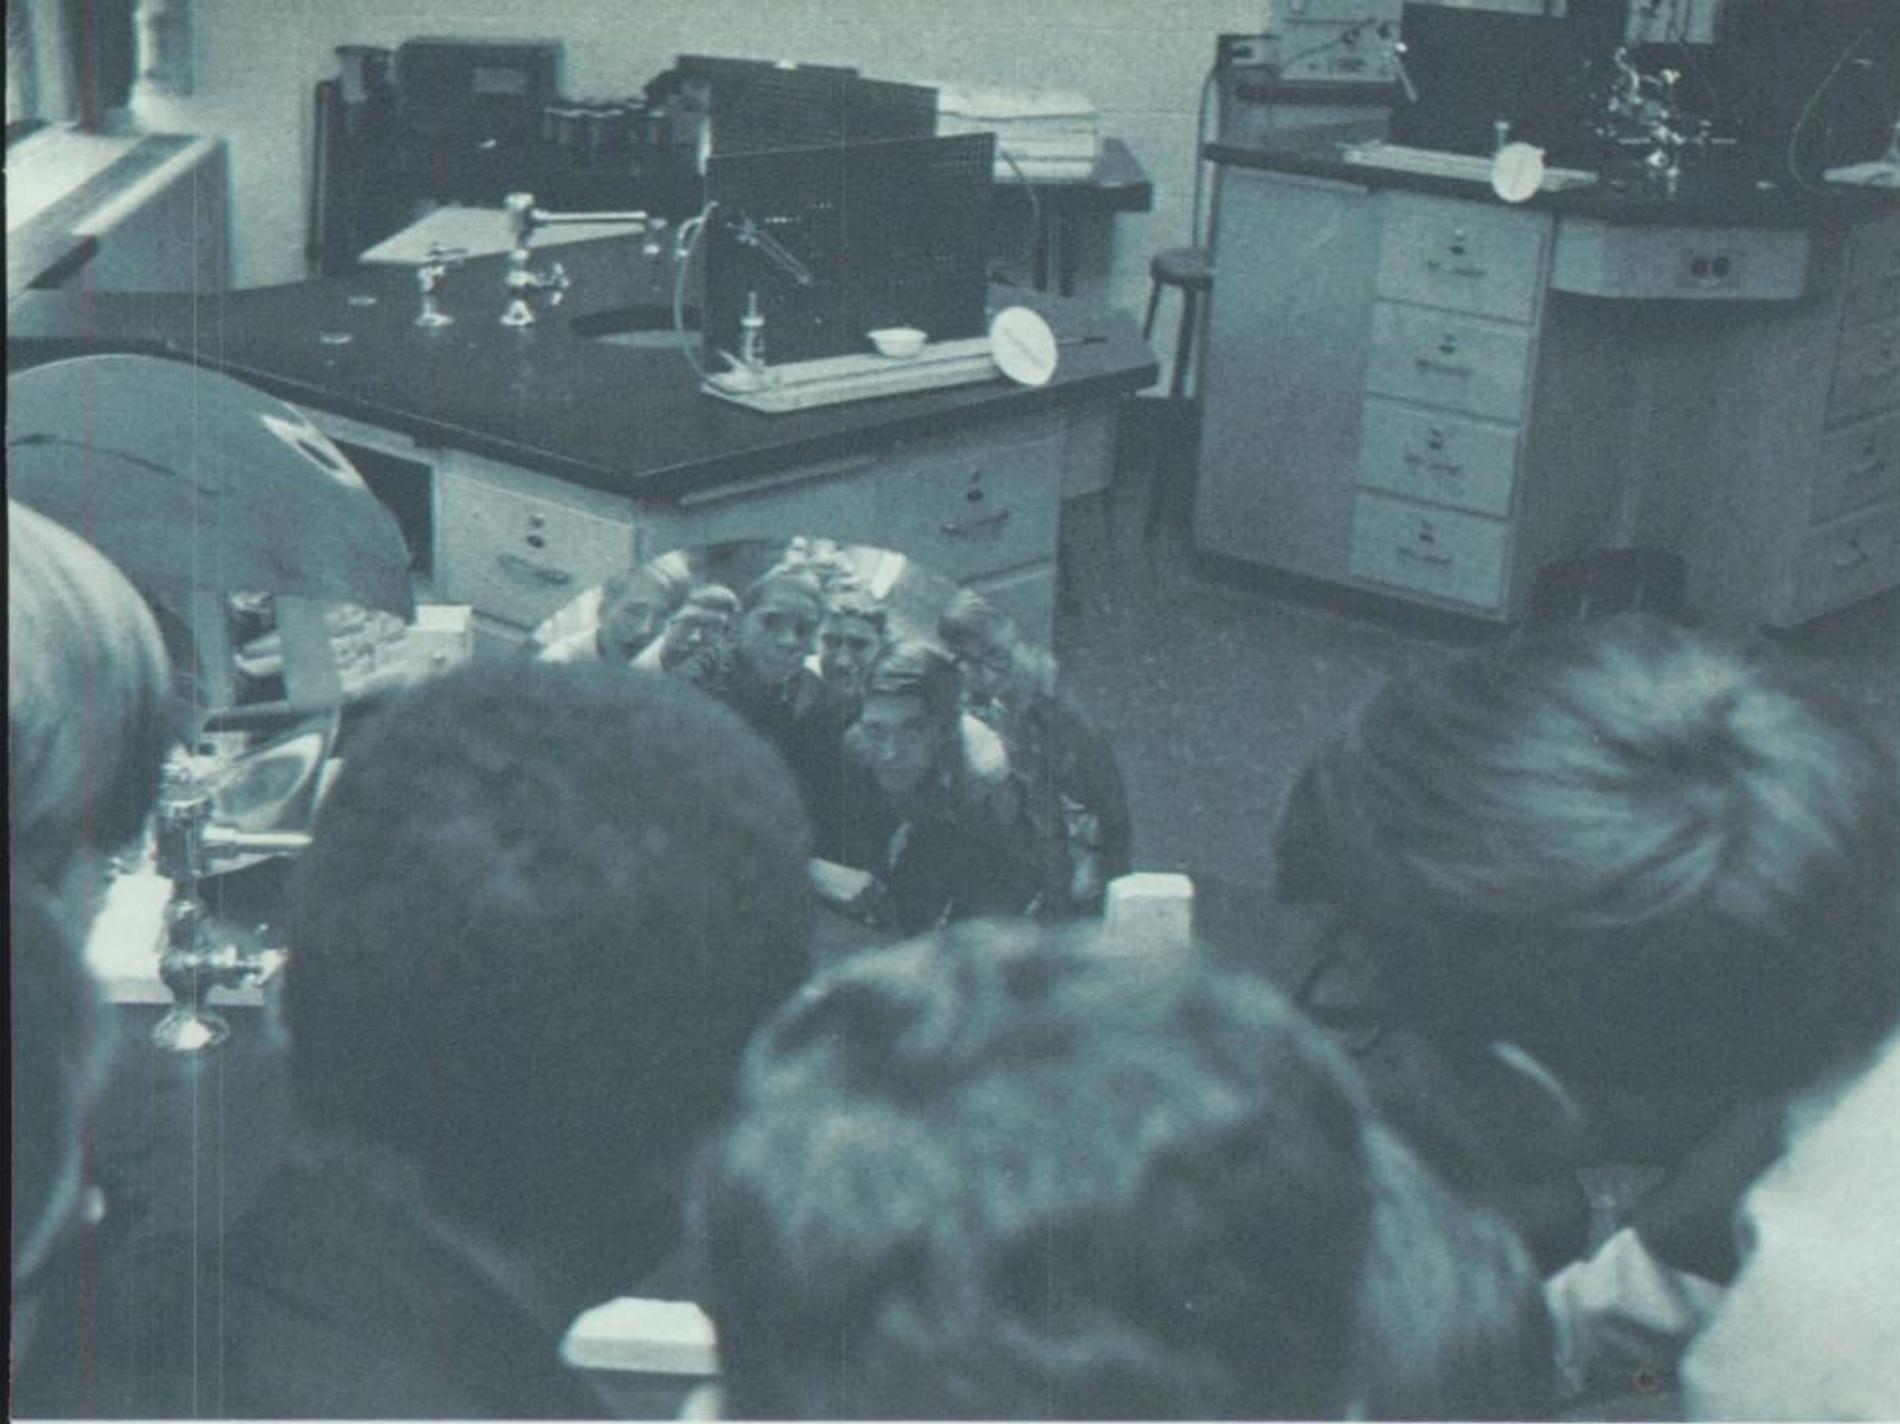

The Future Nurses Club sponsors several activities to interest girls in the challenging and demanding field of nursing. This year Mrs. Staschke, a Registered Nurse at Mt. Carmel Mercy Hospital, spoke to the club and showed a film concerning the field of nursing. In past years other members of the medical field have spoken or demonstrated some of the basic skills involved in nursing. Having these guest speakers promotes much interest in members of the club. This year the club had several other guest speakers telling of their experience in nursing and more films describing specific areas of the career. The highlight of the year was a visit and tour of a hospital. This enabled members to visualize better the work involved in being part of a hospital staff.

As one of the school's more inquisitive organizations, the Science Club seeks to explore new, as well as old ideas in the many fields of science. Many experiments and guest speakers form the basis of very interesting meetings. Under the guidance of Mr. K. G. Schmidt, the Science Club is exposed to the school's various courses in science. Basic facts of biology, chemistry, and physics are given to the student. An understanding of concepts of science helps students to enjoy this club.

Penny Drive Reps, Monitors Give Service to School

A penny saved is a penny earned! That's the way the saying goes, and it has certainly proved to be true at LHW. The representatives for the Penny Drive collect enough money to pay for one big project at the end of the year.

Every homeroom chooses a Penny Drive representative to collect money each Wednesday morning during homeroom, and turn in the money received at the office. Competition takes place between individual homerooms with the highest homeroom winning a prize at the end of the year.

The Hall Monitors daily preserve a peaceful atmosphere throughout LH W's corridors.

Portrait of Success: 1970 Aureole

This year's Aureole staff was directed and instructed by Mr. C. Schroeder, advisor, and Mary Glotzhober, editor-in-chief. Along with the other members of the staff, they have put in many hours of work in order to get the yearbook published.

The work begins in the early fall when individual pictures of all the students and faculty must be taken. Throughout the rest of the year, various other things must be done. Mr. P. Wargo, along with Jan Berglund, took the majority of the club and school activities pictures. When these pictures are received the editors choose the best ones, write captions for them, arrange them on the page, and send them to the yearbook company. At last, when the final deadline is met, the staff gives a sigh of relief.

M. Glotzhober vigorously types as Mr. Schroeder dictates.

C. Gall and M. Glotzhober type copy while Mr. Schroeder and J. Berglund identify pictures.

Marcia Reigns Supreme Over World of Mother Goose

Underclassmen walked the halls carrying candles, consulting alarm clocks, and polishing crowns. Seniors reverted to their childhood. Faculty members conducted classes wearing nightshirts, jumpsuits, and fiery red beards. The scene from a student's dream? No, Lutheran West Homecoming, 1969.

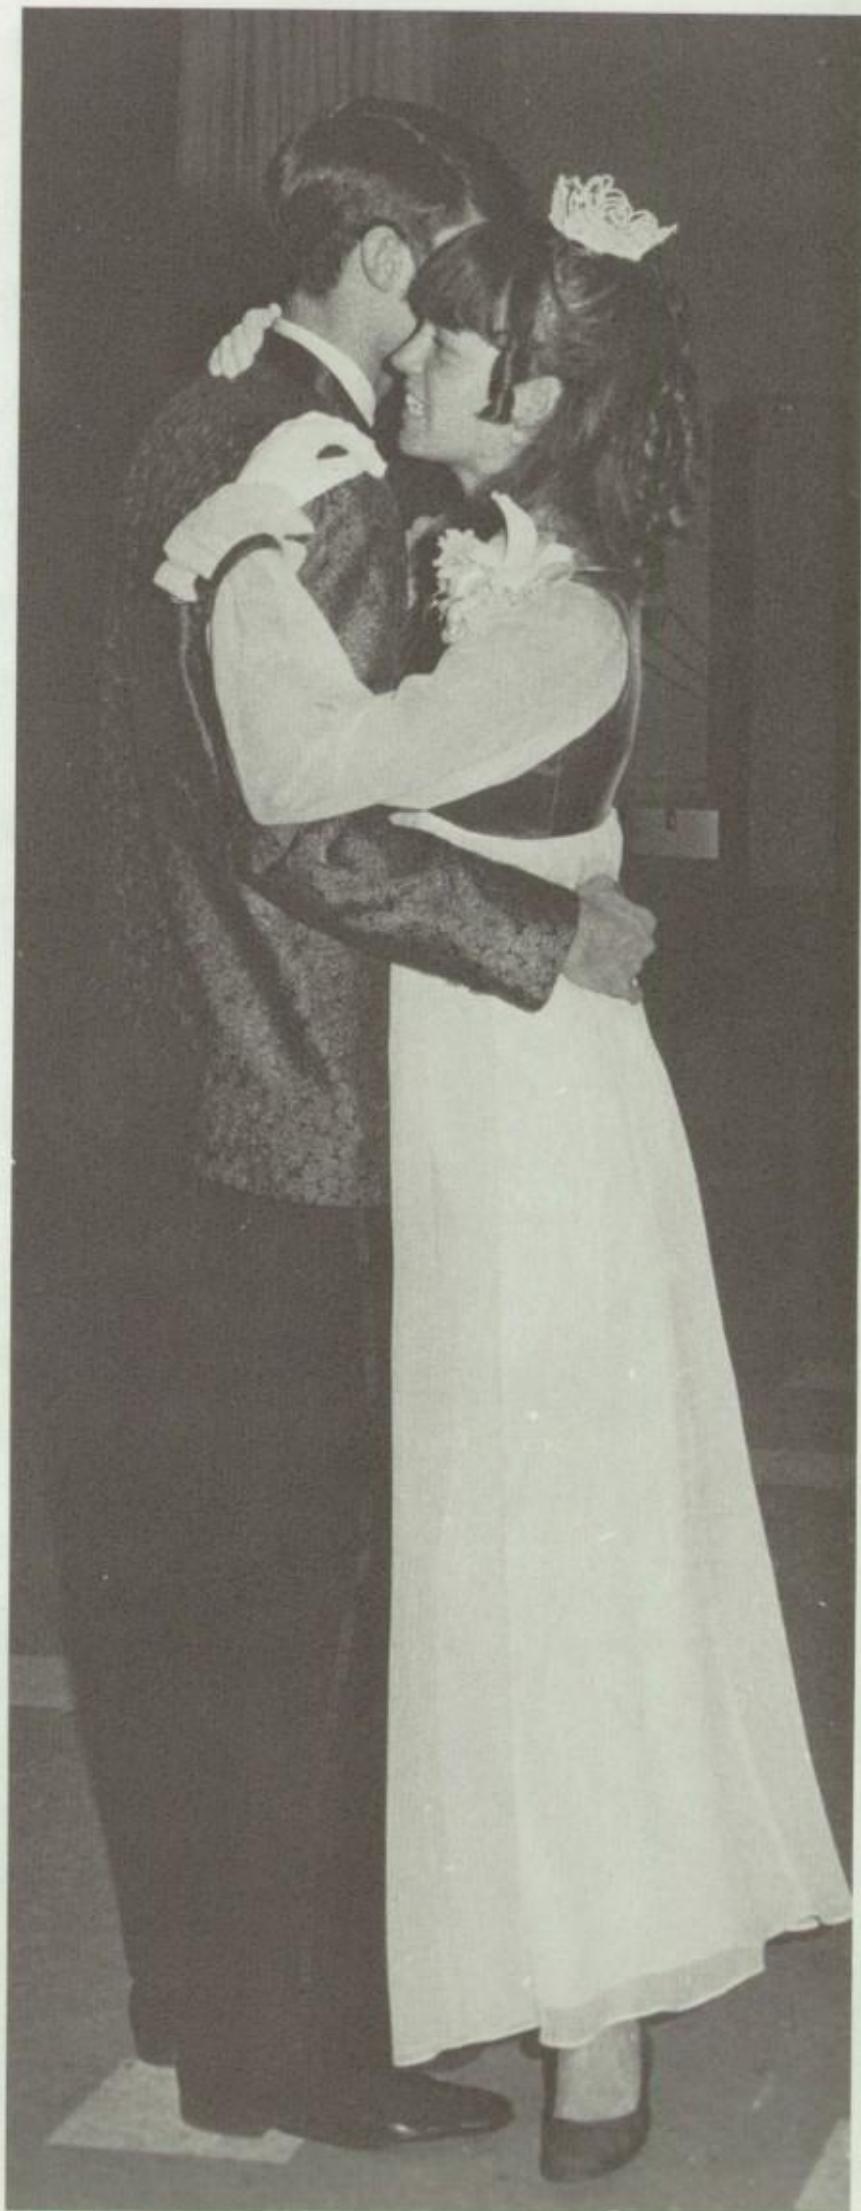

All these oddities appeared as students and faculty observed the Homecoming theme, "The Mod Mod World of Mother Goose". Reigning over this fairy tale world, Queen Marcia Thomas watched the Leopards fight valiantly in a losing cause.

This Mod Mod Homecoming week reached its climax at the game's half-time with the coronation of Queen Marcia and the announcement of the winning float. The Juniors captured first place using the theme, "Old King Cole", topping off a Mod Mod Homecoming week.

Worshippers Observe 25th Anniversary

The Choir assembles as Mr. Wied makes a last minute check prior to the service.

Dr. Stelmachowicz, Rev. Westcott, Rev. Weber, and Dr. Choitz confer before the service.

On September 7, a thanksgiving service was held in commemoration of twenty-five years of Lutheran High Schools in Detroit. Among the leaders of Christian education were; The Rev. E. C. Weber, speaker; The Rev. E. Westcott. The Rev. Dr. John Choitz and the Rev. M. J. Stelmachowicz, who were the Liturgists.

Opening the Order Of Worship, the brass choir played an arrangement of, "Praise to the Lord, the Almighty". Following The Call To Worship, the choir sang the Lutheran anthem, "A Mighty Fortress".

Rev. Weber spoke to the congregation on the importance of promoting the Lutheran High School Movement. He discussed the need for the expansion of the high schools.

'Many Moons' Enjoyed by All

The first production of the year presented by the Drama Club was "Many Moons". A Saturday matinee was scheduled for children, while two evening performances were planned for older members of the audience.

"Many Moons" was an excellent opportunity for six newcomers, five of which were freshmen, to display their abilities. With the combination of this new talent and that of the other members of the cast, a success was produced.

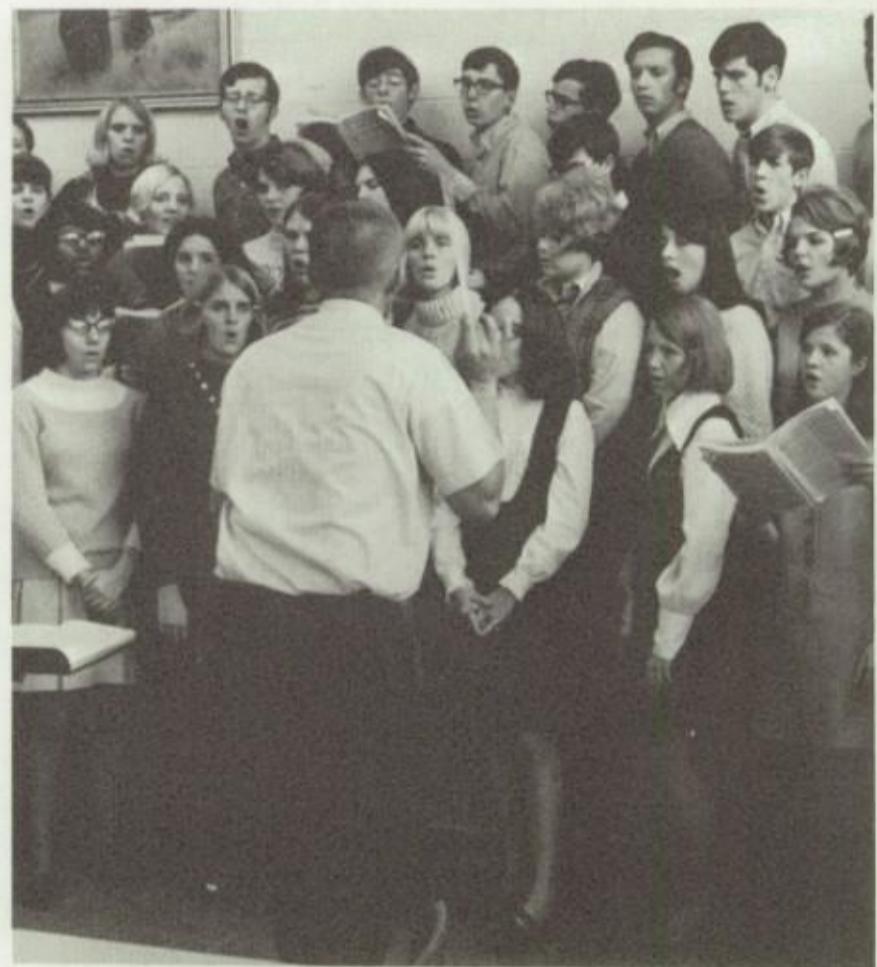

This play is an enjoyable study of happiness. The Princess, portrayed by Ellen Hofmeister, wants very much to be happy, but is unable to decide just what will bring about her happiness.

Choirs Combine, Spread Christmas Spirit

The annual Christmas choir concerts were hosted this year by Guardian Lutheran Church and Holy Cross Lutheran Church. The concerts, which were a combination of the traditional as well as the modern, were enjoyed by all those in attendance.

The Senior Choir began the program with numbers such as "Puer Natus", "O Jesu So Sweet", and "Carol of the Drum", after which the Junior Choir sang their three numbers. The two choirs then combined to sing the contemporary "Nativity Cantata", several Christmas carols, and three selections from Handel's "Messiah". On the last of these, the 'Hallelujah Chorus', the combined choirs were joined in the manner by returning alumni.

Special Effects Add

to 'Miracle Worker'

For their annual winter play, the Drama Club presented the complex production, "Miracle Worker". Contributing to the success of the play was the talent of the members of the cast, as well as those behind the scenes.

Sarah Gabler, a freshman, did an excellent job in portraying Helen Keller. The teacher, Anne Sullivan, who broke Helen's communication barrier, was played by Deb Westcott.

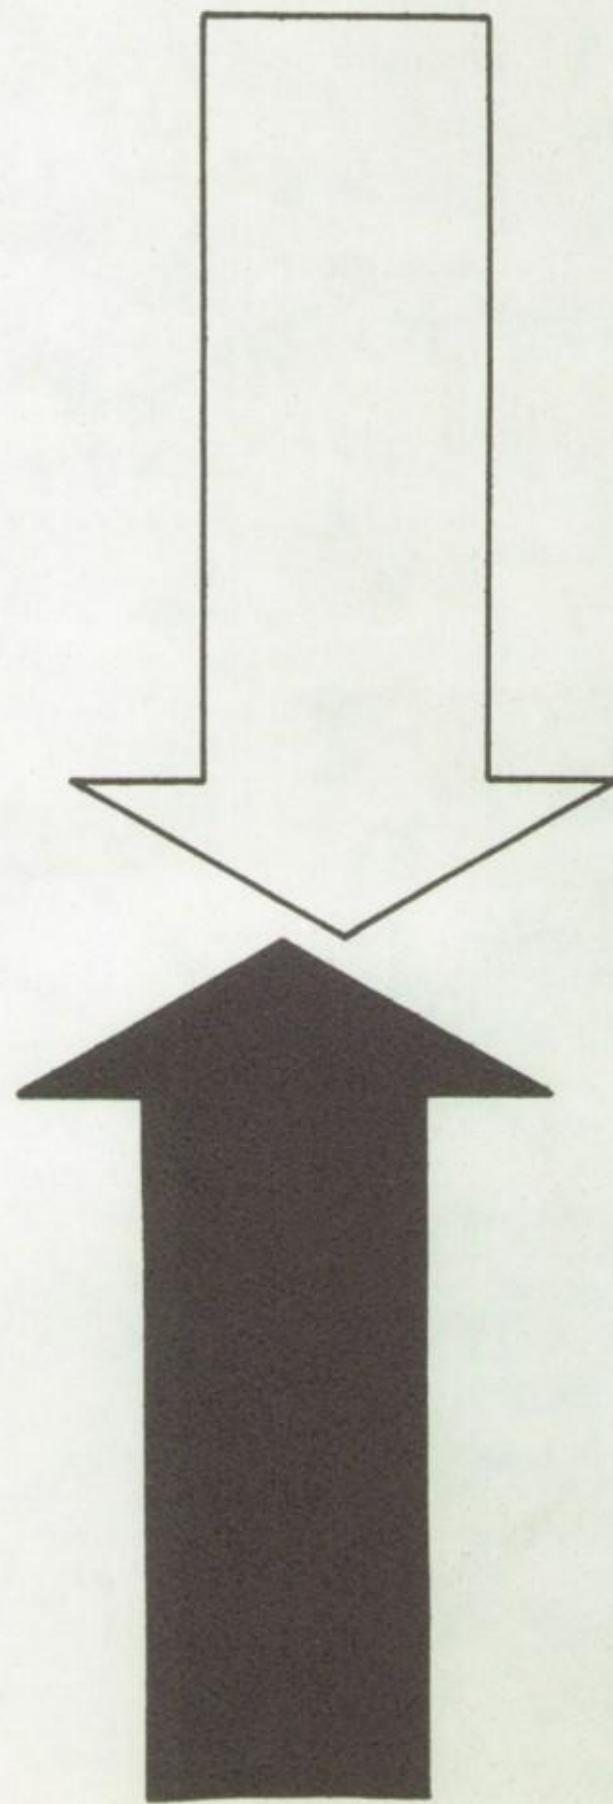

The production of "Miracle Worker" was made possible by the contribution of a new lighting system. This donation was given in memory of Mr. George Finzel.

Not only was the lighting excellent, but the arrangement of the scenery was also an asset in making the play a success. Also, the stage was in three levels to distinguish various scenes of the play.
